State mandates school staff to be vaccinated

TONI DEROSA

Wasco Tribune

The Wasco Union Elementary School District Board has approved a new policy after the governor declared school staff must be vaccinated by Oct. 15.

Superintendent Kelly Richers received unanimous board support for adding the policy.

Richers said that Gov. Gavin Newsom's health order states all school staff must be vaccinated by Oct. 15 or be tested weekly. There are some exceptions that are allowed; however, other than religion, there are only very few specified exceptions.

The policy put in place by the school district specifies what will happen if an employee does not follow the State Health Order. This includes one week to get tested after a missed test, use of necessity leave if desired, then administrative leave without pay or benefits for up to 60 days. If the health order is not followed by that time the employee would be dismissed.

"If we don't do anything about this, then we could end up no longer being a district," Richers said. "We are doing something about this new health order, on the advice of our legal advisors, by making it a new district policy."

Three people addressed the board, declaring their dislike for the policy. Their concerns were also about the impact the policy would have on the mandates expected to come in January or June that will eliminate the testing alternative.

Concerned residents attended the board meeting.

The bleachers were full with spectators for the game.

Wasco Tribune

Freshmen Jackie Mendez and Jacob Ruiz were crowned Homecoming King and Queen at the game against Cesar Chavez High School.

Not only were two freshmen crowned, but the Varsity Tigers beat Chavez 41-8. The JV team tied their game against Chavez 8-8.

Vendor booths were set up around part of the perimeter of the field and students, representing their clubs, broke through the stands selling their club's goodies.

VFW member Don Johnson cheered on the Tigers as he was confident they would win the game.

Anticipation was high for the crowning of the 2021 Homecoming King and Queen during halftime.

Each class selected two students to be candidates and then the entire student body voted on them.

The freshman class nominated Jackie Mendez and Jacob Ruiz, sophomores nominated Gabrielle Hunter and Anthony Renyna, the juniors nominated Katherine Castillo and Ricky Carriedo while the seniors nominated Rosie Padilla,

One of the vendors was Kristen Page. Page and her husband, Dusten, have been operating B&P Honey for about a year. According to Kristen, a local beekeeper was retiring and selling his operation. Kristen's husband, who has a full-time job, decided to do the bee business in addition to his regular job.

The business makes honey, homeycombs and wax items such as soaps, scrubs, and candles.

Among the other vendors at the event was Pompa's Small Shop. Adrianna Pompa, along with her mother Mi-

For those residents that live north of Lerdo Highway, watering on Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Saturdays is allowed. Residents living south of Lerdo Highway may water on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays.

Residents cannot spray off patios, driveways or sidewalks. Violators can be fined up to $500.

City officials also reminded residents that there will be a bulky waste event Saturday, Oct. 16 from 8 a.m. to noon at the Shafter Aquatic Center.

Residents can drive up and dump their unwanted household items. Items accepted include mattresses, appliances,

Kern County Museum director to speak

Dr. Mike McCoy, executive director of the Kern County Museum, will be the speaker at the Shafter Historical Society Annual Meeting on Oct. 21.

The meeting will be held at the Shafter Learning Center, 236 James St., at 7 p.m.

McCoy, who had a distinguished career as an educator, became director of the Kern County Museum in 2017. His topic will be "Liquid Fire: Preserving Iconic Neon Signs."

The museum has a significant collection of neon signs, and they not only recreate the lost skyline of Bakersfield and surrounding towns, but also tell the story of early pioneer businesses.

Among the signs on exhibit is the one from the Stringham's Shafter Drug. All are invited.

Rose Festival brought laughter, cheer to city type space with games, vendors and a lot of food choices.

Barker Park was transformed into a carnival-type playground for food connoisseurs, shopping therapy for those looking for holiday gifts and live music.

The Wasco Rose Festival was a needed break from the past one and one-half year of covid-19. While some came wearing masks, most had them off and enjoyed the fresh air.

An unusual booth was the Family Search booth hosted by the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. Sister Jessi Olsen, Sister Brookie Gee, Elder Ricky Cabrera and Elder Benjamin Lewis manned this stop where they offered to set up meetings for those interested in hunting and discovering ancestral roots. Olsen can be reached at 661-427-9049 and Gee can be reached at 661-410-9006.

Fair food such as funnel cakes, Hawaiian shaved ice, churros and corn bowls were available to purchase.

The festival and parade was put together in three weeks by the Wasco Rose Festival Committee.

Recently, the Wasco Rose Festival Committee announced the traditional name of the celebration, Rose Festival, would return to the city. The new Wasco Rose Festival Committee members include Orquidea Ocampo, Traci Mills-Cleden, Camilo Vasquez, Juan Gallardo and Emma Dobbs.

There was color, religion, singing, music and antics by a group depicting Nintendo game characters in the parade. Several churches were represented as was Palm Avenue Middle School and Wasco High School cheerleaders. It's been over a year since the city has been able to gather and celebrate its heritage.

The Recreation and Parks District, Mills-Cleden and Ocampo, are the same people who brought the annual fire-

The Wasco Rose Festival Committee also recognized 2020 Wasco Rose Queen Isabella Rodriguez. Because of covid-19, Rodriguez was unable to participate in anything like the Rose Festival or parade so this year's committee had her ride in this year's parade.

County hasn't beaten covid yet, cases on the rise

TONI DEROSA
Wasco Tribune

The infected numbers are still rising in Wasco and Shafter, but the rate of infection is decreasing slowly.

On Oct. 5, Wasco had 6,210 infected people since the beginning of the pandemic in March 2020 and on Tuesday, Oct. 13, that number has increased 75 newly infected people to a total of 6,285 cases.

Shafter's numbers also continue to rise slowly from Oct. 7 of 4,332 cases to an increase of 46 newly infected people on Oct. 12 to 4,403 cases.

Kern County Public Health announced the latest covid-19 facts on Monday, Oct. 11, stating there were 295 newly reported confirmed cases in Kern County, bringing the total confirmed cases to date to 132,932.

"There are also four new deaths being reported to date to 142,392," Public Information Officer Michelle Corson said.

She also said that there have been a total of 1,596 covid-19 deaths in the county since the start of the pandemic.

Corson said that the covid-19 vaccine clinic at the Kern County Fairgrounds opened Tuesday, Oct. 12. It will be open Tuesday through Friday from 10:30 a.m. to 6 p.m. This is a walk-up clinic and Pfizer vaccines will be available for 12 and older. Residents are encouraged to make an appointment at www.myturn.ca.gov.

OBITUARY

Edward Leon
"Duke" Snider
Apr. 30, 1934 – Oct. 1, 2021

Edward "Duke" Snider passed away unexpectedly on Friday, October 1st.

Duke was born in Olney, Texas on April 30, 1934 to Doc and Vera Snider. He was raised in Delano and was very proud to be the first in his family to graduate from college. Duke was starting full back for the Fresno State Bulldogs and earned a degree in Kinesiology. While in school, he earned extra income by modeling for Gottschalk's. After college, he joined the Marine Corps and while serving his country he had the privilege of playing football for them. After the Marine Corps, he taught high school and coached football taking his team to many championships.

While earning extra money during the summer months in the produce industry in Brawley, CA, Duke met the love of his life, Connie. It truly was love at first sight, and 50 years later it was evident to everyone that met them that their passion for one another had never waned. Duke and Connie started a horse breeding business in the Imperial Valley, and eventually he would join Connie in their full-time antique business in Prescott, AZ. They moved to Shafter in 2005 to be closer to their grandchildren. Duke enjoyed the simplicity of life in retirement—spending time with his honey, reading the Word of God and football. He will be greatly missed for he was our prayer warrior.

His infectious laugh, tender heart and contrite spirit will never be forgotten.

Duke is survived by his wife Connie; daughters, Terry Nicholas and Tammy Criswell (Scott); 4 grandchildren, Tonya Johnson, Michael Rubio (Dora), Constance Rubio, and Jacob Rubio (Bridgett) and 9 great-grandchildren, Karsten, Riley, Faith, Matthew, Iliana, Soraya, Wyatt Duke, Maddilyn and Owen.

Funeral services will be held at the Bakersfield National Cemetery at 2:00 p.m.

The city also announced the addition of a new phone number that will directly connect to the Public Works Department.

The numbers for the different departments at the City Hall building and city offices are: Public Works- 661-746-5004, Human Resources- 661-746-5003, City Services- 661-746-5002, Finance- 661-746-5001, and City Manager- 661-746-5000.

The Shafter Learning Center recently participated in team building exercises. Learning Center staff members met on a Saturday for some team building and staff development. They discussed best practices in tutoring, class ideas, opportunities for further learning, and customer service. They also discussed our organizational structure, history, and the exciting next phase of our work that will include a locally operated library and the GAF expansion.

Shafter Woman's Club raises awareness about domestic violence

BY JAMIE STEWART

The Shafter Press

October is Domestic Violence Awareness Month and the Shafter Woman's Club is helping spread the word.

Barbara Gladden, who is heading up the effort for the club, recently spoke to the City Council and presented a pledge which promises to recognize the issue as an important one and they will do their part in fighting against domestic violence.

"Too many times, the abuse goes ignored, or not dealt with," said Gladden.

The club also presented the pledge at a recent Woman's Club meeting, as well as placing purple ribbons around trees in the community, in support of the fight against domestic abuse.

They also are setting up a booth at Shafter High School, giving students an opportunity to take the pledge as well.

"We got such a great turnout last year," said Gladden, stating that over 100 students last year took the pledge.

The Shafter Woman's Club presented the council with a pledge against domestic violence.

"It is so wonderful to see so many young people who are concerned and are willing to do something about the issue."

Gladden mentioned at the council meeting that the issue is not just some issue that affects others. This issue hit very close to home recently when five lives were lost in Wasco when a Wasco man took the lives of his wife, two sons, and a Kern County Sheriff's SWAT team member when he confronted the sheriff's department in a standoff that began involving a case of domestic violence.

This issue can affect not just those intimately involved in the situation, but also the friends and family members that have to deal with the situation, as well as the aftermath of the consequences.

"This issue is an important one and can be dealt with before it becomes a dangerous situation and ends in a tragedy," Gladden said.

Domestic Violence Awareness month was started in October 1987 as a way to connect individuals and groups dealing with domestic violence while raising awareness of the issue.

OBITUARY

Clifford Pierce Sr.
Dec. 30, 1942 –
Sept. 27, 2021

Clifford was born Dec. 30, 1942, in Raiford, Okla., to Homer and Mildred Pierce. In 1958, he moved to Shafter, where he met his wife, Glenda Jeanette Foster, in 1967, and they were married on March 16, 1972. Together they had four children, 14 grandchildren and 10 great grandchildren; daughters Melissa Mora (Javier) of Pennsylvania, Lahoma Morgan (James) and Mildred Pierce (Joshua Garzoli) of Bakersfield and son Clifford Pierce Jr. of Shafter.

Clifford was a veteran member of the American Legion, DAV, NOTR and Vietnam Veterans of America. He served in the Army from January 1968 through November 1971.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Homer and Mildred Pierce; daughter Frances Pierce; grandson Angel Pierce; and two brothers and one sister, Johnny Pierce, Timmy Pierce and Katherine Chapman. He is survived by a sister, Lela Gee, and brother, Bobby Pierce.

Funeral services were held at Greenlawn in Bakersfield on Oct. 6, and burial is pending.

Generals celebrate Homecoming with win over Arvin

JAMIE STEWART
The Shafter Press

The Shafter High Generals celebrated their Homecoming night with a big win against the Arvin Bears 47-7, keeping their SSSL record unblemished at 4-0.

Shafter's stadium is in the middle of a major renovation, so the Generals played their Homecoming game at North High on Friday night. This didn't affect the crowd much, as a large number of Shafter fans were on hand to witness the festivities.

Led by quarterback Devon Sundgren, the Generals' offense played a strong game, rolling up yardage on a defense that didn't have an answer for Sundgren, as he flipped a quick pass to a receiver, or took off and scrambled for big first downs.

Shafter took an early lead in the first quarter as the Generals used a key third down pass play to get the ball into Bear territory. Shafter drove the ball down inside the Arvin 10 yard line when Sundgren took the ball in for the touchdown.

Shafter upped the lead in the second quarter with a drive that ended with Elijah Lucero, who had a very productive game on both sides of the ball, scored on a touchdown run. Lucero had several good plays on the defensive side of the ball as well, including a couple of tackles for losses, and some hard hits.

The Shafter defense almost pitched its second straight shutout, giving up just one score after a couple of miscues in the defensive backfield. But, on the drive after the Arvin score, the Generals answered right back. With the Bears pinning the Generals at their own eight yard line after the kick-off, Sundgren took the ball to the left side and raced down the sideline 92 yards for a touchdown.

The rest of the game was Shafter moving the ball at will, while keeping the Bears' offense off of the field, thanks to a ball-control offense and a defense that stopped the Bears at every turn. The Bears tried a couple of different quarterbacks on the night, but neither could penetrate that blue and gold wall.

Malia Maldonado and Tyson Dozhier were named Homecoming Queen and King.

At halftime, Shafter's Homecoming King and Queen were announced. General quarterback Tyson Dozhier, who is still rehabbing, won the King's crown, while Ma-lia Maldonado won the Queen's crown.

Shafter will travel back to Reedley on Friday night for a game that was postponed when a lightning storm hit the area midway through their game with the Eagles earlier in the season, with the Generals trailing after the half, 14-7.

After that game, the Generals face their two biggest opponents in the SSL, Kennedy on Oct. 22 and rivals Wasco on Oct. 29.

Defense, pass game keeps Wasco undefeated

LAMONT GRIDIRON

For the Wasco Tribune

Once again, it was another heroic defensive effort that helped the Tigers secure another South Sequoia League victory on Homecoming Friday night 41-8 over the Cesar Chavez Titans (1-5, 1-2 in the SSL).

The win keeps the Tigers (7-0, 3-0) undefeated overall and tied for first place with the Shafter Generals in the league.

"It was business as usual. That was our motive tonight," said Wasco Coach Chad Martinez. "The defense did a great job."

In unique fashion, Wasco, which is known for running the ball well over 90% of the time, took to the passing game.

"We had to make adjustments. We had to compete with what Chavez was throwing at us," Ferguson said.

The Tigers had been averaging 6.5 passes per game. Though, on this night, the ball was thrown 17 times.

"We can go run or pass and be successful both ways," Juarez said. On this night, the orange-clad Tigers defense stopped the run, intercepted three passes, recovered multiple fumbles and forced several Titan punts.

Iaziah Juarez, who scored on a touchdown reception and secured an interception early in the first half, said the Wasco picks came based off reading the opposing offense.

"On my interception, I read the slants and followed the opposing quarterback's eyes, and I got the pick," he said.

For 90% of the game, the Tigers would not allow any surge of momentum or allow Chavez to earn any yards. Unsteady they were only able to advance the ball when Wasco was tagged for a penalty.

All in all, Chavez didn't begin getting any yardage until late in the fourth quarter.

"We're a lock-down defensive team," said senior linebacker Armando Medina.

Medina had two of the six sacks for the Tigers.

"The screaming fans, parents make our defense play hard. We want to put on a defensive show for the crowd."

The Titans were able to muster up a drive on their last possession that led to their sole touchdown.

Friday also marked a season and career high of 238 passing yards for Wasco senior quarterback Jacob Ruiz.

"I couldn't believe I set a career high on Homecoming night," he said afterward.

Ruiz threw three touchdown passes and scored a touchdown on a 3-yard quarterback sweep.

"With this team, anything is possible," Ruiz said. "The way the O-line (offensive line) blocks, it gives me time, and with these receivers, anything is possible."

For the game, Micheal Dominguez, who started in place for the injured Omar Tovar for the second consecutive game, ran for 63 yards.

Alexis Girarte rushed for 45 yards.

Sean Sharpe scored a touchdown on a pass from Ruiz and rushed for a handful of yards.

Azia Ferguson scored two TD receptions and intercepted a pass. Izaiah Juarez scored on a touchdown reception along with an interception. Eli Vasquez scored on a 26-yard toss early in the first quarter.

Thursday evening at 7:30, the Tigers will travel to Arvin to compete in another SSL match-up versus the Bears.

Omar Tovar, Graciela Gonzalez and Brian Dominguez.

The 2021 Homecoming Queen was Jackie Mendez and Homecoming King was Jacob Ruiz.

Prior to the homecoming court being announced, the class floats circled the football field. Float themes were freshman Cruella De Vil, sophomores theme was Queen of Hearts, juniors theme was Captain Hook and senior theme was Evil Queen.

The float winners were 4th place sophomores, 3rd place freshmen, 2nd place seniors and 1st place juniors.

PUBLIC NOTICE Notice of Petition to Administer Estate of Shirley Joanne O'Dell aka Shirley J. O'Dell aka Shirley O'Dell aka Shirley Odell aka Shirley Joanne Odell aka Shirley J. Odell

Case Number: BPP-21-002509

1. To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the will or estate, or both, of: Shirley Joanne O'Dell aka Shirley J. O'Dell aka Shirley Odell aka Shirley Joanne Odell aka Shirley J. Odell

2. A Petition for Probate has been filed by: Pamela D. Walker in the Superior Court of California, County of: Kern

3. The Petition for Probate requests that: Pamela D. Walker be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.

4. The petition requests the decedent's will and codicils, if any, be admitted to probate. The will and any codicils are available for examination in the file kept by the court.

5. The petition requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

6. A hearing on the petition will be held in this court as follows:

a. Date: October 21, 2021 Time: 10:30 a.m. Dept.: P

b. Address of court: Superior Court of California, County of Kern, 1215 Truxtun Avenue, Bakersfield, CA 93301, Metropolitan Division - Justice Building

7. If you object to the granting of the petition you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

8. If you are a creditor or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code. Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

9. You may examine the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk.
