Some special finds at 2nd Hand Store

The front of 2nd Hand Store on F Street.

A couple of the pictures hanging on the walls.

TONI DEROSA
Wasco Tribune

For some people, going to a secondhand store can be daunting; however, for others, it's a treasure trove of unique finds.

No matter how you feel, the Wasco 2nd Hand Store has an eclectic collection of items likely to meet some need.

Owner Maria Valdez is at the store Monday-Friday, sometimes from 11 a.m. to 6:30 p.m., and her son Miguel Valdez is there to help her when he is done with his Bakersfield College classes for the day. He is the youngest of three and he helps his mom out with the store during the weekdays.

Maria was born in Temastian, Jalisco, Mexico. Miguel was born in Bakersfield and was educated in Wasco schools. He is currently studying engineering at BC.

"Sometimes I go by bus to school and other times my friend will drive. I don't have a car, yet," Miguel said in a teasing voice while smiling at his mother.

Miguel confessed that he wants to go away to college – either to Fresno State or California State University, Northridge, where his two older sisters are students – but his mother doesn't want him to go.

"My mom doesn't want me to leave home," Miguel confessed. "I have a license, but my mother won't let me drive when we visit our family."

Miguel was Maria's translator during the interview, but she understood several questions in English.

The store is small in size but carries a variety of items such as crock pots still in their boxes, glassware, dishes, clothing and a lot of pictures hanging on the walls.

In front of the store are different pieces of furniture. A customer came in and dropped off a Hello Kitty piece of luggage in tip-top shape, ready for display.

A couple different kinds of bar stools also sit in front of the store. Two tall ones made of dark wood with soft and cushy riveted leather seats are going for $20 each. On the other side of the front door is a stack of tall, black enamel bar stools, which are numbered seven and being sold individually for $20 apiece.

"Mom collects most of her items at yard sales in Bakersfield," Miguel said. "Most of our items are donated."

Miguel said that furniture is the biggest seller. Inside the store is a tall, dark wood chest of drawers – taller than 5-foot-4.

There are filled clothing racks and a large selection of neatly folded jeans to choose from.

Maria greets everyone who enters the store with a warm hola, while Miguel works behind the scenes to organize the contents.

The store is located at 540 F St., but if you aren't careful, you could miss it. Store hours are from 11 a.m. to 6:30 p.m. and their phone number is 661-747-0185. Before driving to the store, be sure to call to make sure it's open because 11 a.m. isn't an absolute.

"The owner might be selling the building in the next year," Miguel said. "We will find another location."

leeways in town.

Students combed the alleys to pick up any small trash and mark the large items for pickup from the driving crew.

"We filled several truckloads as high as we could with large items," Independence High Principal Martin Lonza said. "We had mattresses, refrigerators, stoves, couches, etc. I couldn't believe what people thought was old – they must have purchased new furniture and were replacing it, leaving it to be picked up by us."

Wasco High Principal Kevin Tallon said, "The varsity football team was eager to help with the clean-up, and most of the team showed up to help."

Alvarado told her student volunteers that whoever had the heaviest bag would get a prize on Monday. Those kids scrambled to find anything they could; a couple tried to pass off rocks but were quickly told they didn't qualify.

WHS varsity football players came out to help with the cleanup.

The Clemens clean-up crew, in order of grade: 3rd grade, Iuania Rivera; 4th grade, Lorena Chavez, Rosalynn Martinez, Valeria Perez and Octavio Santiago; and 5th grade, Fernando Altamirano, Sodi Aldame, Azucena Santiago and Daniel Vidales.

County Supervisor David Couch, left, with Jeff Martin the owner of American Refuse in Wasco.

Local politicians support Trunk or Treat

TONI DEROSA

Wasco Tribune

Assemblymember Rudy Salas, state Sen. Melissa Hurtado and U.S. Rep. TJ Cox all had booths set up at the Trunk or Treat this year.

Barker Park was the scene on Tuesday for hundreds of costumed kids attended the event and were entertained by costumed adults handing out fistfuls of candy. Waiting in line took a while as there were well over two dozen kids in each line for buckets of candy, but it was worth the wait for sweet stash.

Councilmember John Pallares dressed up as a knight and let kids play with the sword that went with his costume.

Clowns, cowboys, soldiers, ghouls and "Day of the Dead" characters were well represented. Several children had Day of the Dead makeup on and colorful costumes to match.

The City of Wasco had a colorful cornhole game going on during the event. Wasco Independence High School had masks for the kids at their photo booth.

Coordinating the event Wasco Independence High School were Angie Benavides, Vianny Gonzalez and Liz Soto, who were attending to visitors all evening long.

Decorated trunks were open and filled with buckets of candy.

Assemblymember Salas hands out treats to two robots.

Orange Heart's Traci Mills Clendenen and Sarah Skeels handed out candy.

Adults dressed up just like the kids.

Walmart gives VFW $1,000

TONI DEROSA

Wasco Tribune

The Wasco VFW received a $1,000 donation recently.

Walmart donated $1,000 to the VFW and this isn't the first donation from Walmart this year.

"The money will be used to repair some battery-operated wheelchairs we accumulated this year," Commander James Madrone said.

Walmart also donated man hours when the VFW volunteers painted the white crosses that are placed in the cemetery on Memorial Day weekend.

A familiar person in the Walmart mix was Jamie Nixon who is manager of the children's department and also a member of Grace Community Church.

Nixon was also one of the many volunteers who assisted at this past weekend's Wasco Festival in the city's cornhole booth.

Human Services Manager Veronica Bristowe was on hand to greet the public.

Store Manager Joel Vidrales has been the manager in the Wasco store for about one and one-half years and before that worked in other Walmart stores for 21 years. "I like working for this Walmart," Vidrales said. "It is like one, big happy family."

Commander Madrone thanked Walmart for its generous donation and stated it has been a pleasure partnering with them for the past couple of years.

"Walmart donated a palate of bottled water to all of the sheriff's stations and police departments in Kern County," Nixon added. "We also donated $2,500 to each law enforcement department."

Bristowe noted that Walmart employees do a lot of local volunteering for community nonprofits.

"Walmart cares," Bristowe said. "If we can be there, we will be."

No homeless at camp

After pushback, county drops Shafter facility

JAMIE STEWART

Wasco Tribune

The Kern Housing Authority announced recently that they will be utilizing a farm labor camp in the Arvin/Lamont area to house approximately 50 to 75 women this year while the camp is essentially empty during the winter months.

In a report just two months ago, the office was considering using the Shafter Farm Labor Camp on Highway 43 and Merced Avenue midway between Shafter and Wasco, which drew a large amount of opposition. Concerned citizens made phone calls to Supervisor David Couch's office; they also appeared at a City Council meeting, speaking out against the move.

The council sent a letter to the Kern Housing Authority informing the authority that they would have to follow all zoning ordinances and regulations to convert the labor camp into a homeless shelter.

The Housing Authority answered the council's correspondence with a letter that detailed the discussions that had been made, saying they never intended to convert the camp into a homeless shelter. Steve Pelz, of the Kern Housing Authority, had explained in an interview, "This would not be a homeless center situation. The women would have food provided to them and would have transportation provided, deeming it unnecessary for the women to go into the city of Shafter."

He also stated that the women would be assisted in finding housing and employment in the areas in which they came from. The communities of Shafter and Wasco both showed no confidence in the plan and its citizens spoke out against it. Colleen Diltz, a Shafter resident said, "I don't think it is right for them to re-today, it's for every day," Luna emphasized.

Luna presented several suggestions to the students that could make their school days easier and more fun. He encouraged not being a bullying bystander – to try to step in, talk to the students involved and be a friend. If that doesn't work, he then suggested to get an adult teacher or staff member to come talk to the students involved in the incident.

Luna stated that when an adult shows up, the bullying stops and the power is taken away from the bully.

He also mentioned that oftentimes bullies are students who are afraid and don't know how to express their fear.

Principal Oscar Luna addresses the students about celebrating unity at lunch.

"Forrest Elementary will do this by wearing a bracelet to demonstrate that alcohol and drug addiction is not the proper solution to life," Principal Oscar Luna said. "Now is the time to say no to drugs."

Forrest Elementary has scheduled two weeks of different slogans for the day as well as several activities the students can participate in.

Oct. 23 was Unity Day, where students were asked to wear orange to display unity with all. On Oct. 24 students were recognized under the theme "Be a Genius, Say No To Drugs" and celebrated the nerd in everyone by wearing plaid and nerd gear. (Bracelets were given to each student). and Friday, Oct. 25 was Spirit Day when students wear their class colors.

Red Ribbon Week continues through Friday.

On Monday, students focused on "Follow your Dreams, Don't Do Drug," wearing pajamas to school if they wanted to. On Tuesday, students said "peace out" to drugs and could wear peace signs/tie dye/'70s apparel, while on Thursday students could sport crazy hair to illustrate "Use Your Head, Don't Do Drugs." Friday is Spirit Day, where students wear their class colors.

Tigers can make or break Shafter season

MATTHEW ROBLEDO
Wasco Tribune

The Wasco Tigers hosted their last home game of the season last Friday night against Taft, and they left the field a winner.

Taft was the first to receive, and they were driving down the field. They were in the red zone before the ball was coughed up and recovered by Joel Vargas. But the Tigers couldn't capitalize. This brought the game to the second quarter with the game still scoreless.

The next drive for Taft also stalled, and the Tigers were back with the ball. They drove down the field, chipping away with runs. This was until Jacob Villanueva threw a 16-yard strike down the field to Andre Cordova for the first touchdown of the game.

But Taft would answer right back, making the score 7-6, with a minute left in the half. The Tigers drove down the field with the purpose of one more touchdown before the half. Set up by a long 38-yard connection between Villanueva and Cordova, Villanueva found Cordova in the end zone once again, this time for 12 yard reception, putting the Tigers up 14 -6 to end the half.

To start the second half, the Tigers took the kickoff and came out ready for another 24 minutes of war. They drove down the field and ended with an 8-yard touchdown from running back Christian Alvarez. Making it 21-6 in the third quarter.

Both teams kept fighting for the ball, until deep into the 4th quarter the Tigers struck again. This one was a long run once again by Alvarez for a 34-yard touchdown, making it 28-6 with 1:47 left in the game.

Taft scored one more time late in the game for the final score.

The player of the game goes to running back Christian Alvarez, who rushed for 174 yards on 18 carries with 2 rushing touchdowns. The play of the game went to the fumble recovery by Joel Vargas, which set the tone for the Tigers game on Friday night.

In the preliminary matches, the junior varsity won 44-6 over Taft, and the freshman lost 47-30 against independence on Thursday.

It is that time of the year again. It is time for the biggest local rivalry and that is Shafter vs. Wasco. The junior varsity begins at 5 p.m. Friday at the Shafter High football field, and the varsity at 7:30. Come out and root for Wasco!!!

The Tigers, now 3-2 in the South Sequoia League and 5-4 overall, have a chance to knock the Generals out of the league championship – and the Valley playoffs. The Generals are at 4-1 in SSL action, and can clinch a piece of the championship with a win in the rivalry game. Chavez and Kennedy join Shafter at the top of the standings, with 4-1 records.

The community is invited to join in the citywide rally on Wednesday at the high school at 7 p.m.

TONI DEROSA
Wasco Tribune

Wasco High Tigers beat the Taft Wildcats 28-13 in the last home game of the season – and the last home game of 14 seniors' high school playing days.

Since Friday night's game highlighted seniors, the senior players, band members and cheerleaders were individually presented to the attendees at the game.

Prior to the game, the senior football players were introduced to everyone along with their parents or family members present.

Each player was announced and a brief biography was presented as to what his plans were after graduation, such as Jacob Villanueva who plans on attending Bakersfield College, Tony Peak who plans on attending Fresno State to study criminal justice and Jared Torres who would like to attend Bakersfield College and transfer to University of California at Santa Barbara.

Other senior football players recognized included: Vincent Villanueva, Jacob Villanueva, Rodrick Scott, Tony Peak, Eduardo Solis, Alejandro Prieto, Brock Derrington, Juan Martinez, Daniel Lopez, Jared Torres, Austin Dobbs, Geranimo Valdivia, Jacob Martinez, Eddie Saldana and Alejandro Gil.

The Darling Divas – mostly primary school girls -- were invited to participate in the halftime show, and worked with the high school cheerleaders the week before.

"That is when younger girls come to learn a cheer routine and cheer from the high school cheerleaders," Activities Coordinator Hailley Coyle said.

The younger girls performed at halftime with the high school cheerleaders.

In addition to the Darling Divas, the band performed while senior band members were also individually introduced to the attendees.

Band members included I didn't know they were performing.

The last game of the season for the team is the rivalry game against Shafter High Friday at 7:30 p.m. at Shafter.

COUCH'S CORNER

Finding solutions to homelessness

I recently learned of the Housing Authority of Kern's concept of using farm labor camps they own in Shafter and Lamont to house about 50 homeless women from Kern County temporarily this winter. [Editor's note: The county has since eliminated the Shafter camp from the plan for this year.] Having no more details than that, I let a member of the Shafter community know. Within days, our District 4 office phones were lighting up. Many people were upset and opposed to "the plan." Not knowing any details ourselves, we contacted HAKC. We learned a management plan was being developed but not completed yet.

So where do I stand on this? At this point, not having the specifics of the plan, I simply don't know enough to be in favor of the plan or oppose the plan. As details come out, I invite the public to comment, criticize or suggest changes. I'm confident HAKC will listen and consider all reasonable comments. They are, and want to be, a good neighbor.

Some of the details that are known so far: The plan is for about 50 homeless women from Kern County to be housed in this "bridge" housing. The labor camps sit empty November through April, as they are used for migrant farm labor.

The facilities are fully contained and self-sufficient housing units that have food, laundry, bathroom facilities and open spaces, that will negate the need for those placed in these homeless units to be walking into town. Furthermore, services such as mental health, counseling, human services and health care will be available on site. Finally, transportation services to Bakersfield will be provided so that doctor appointments and other off-site services will not result in local foot traffic.

Keep in mind that these homeless women are in the process of finding permanent housing and this housing is considered "bridge" housing because they are relatively close to finding that housing and will be gone by March 31 to make room for the migrant farmworkers who come in seasonally. Finally, local hiring, purchasing and cleanup incentives are being considered to help make these plans more acceptable to the local community.

When the plan is ready and available, I encourage all interested parties to read it and provide their comments in support or in opposition. I also encourage everyone to come forward with your constructive ideas and recommendations regarding the issue of homelessness. For this to be a success, it is fully understood that the cooperation of the local communities is paramount.

All of us are aware of the explosion of the homeless problem in our State. Even in our smaller communities, we see more homeless than before, and we are all conflicted by this – by the sadness we feel at this human suffering happening before our eyes and by the fear that compels us to shout out "not in my backyard." The Delano community is working to get ahead of their fear – to see their problem as their own and to solve it themselves. It's already in their backyard, and they are taking steps to address it.

We started meeting as the Delano Homeless Collaborative last year, and brought in stakeholders and interested citizens, including people from my office. We identified some steps needed: We participated in the Point-in-Time Count and found 45 homeless in the community and speculate there are about 25 more that weren't counted.

We brought in some county departments and were able to get the Kern County Behavioral Health Department to establish a recovery station that will help the Delano Police Department to take the disorderly due to drugs, alcohol or a mental health crisis and put them in a detox facility for the night, where they can get peer counseling and treatment rather than a night in jail. We worked with Flood Ministries to utilize available funding for a motel voucher program and we've put Delano folks in need of a few nights into hotels instead of on the streets. We most recently identified a location for a day facility so that those homeless from Delano can have a place to go to shower, eat and relax off the street and away from the weather.

I tell the Delano story now, even though the labor camps are near Lamont, Arvin, Shafter and Wasco, because Delano learned that getting ahead of their homeless problem removed the fear. My office will be glad to lead any initiative in the District 4 communities to discuss, understand and deal with the problem of homelessness in your communities. The problem's already in our backyard. Let's work together to solve it.

We've come full circle, sort of. Lamont's Sunset Labor Camp was the camp the Joads made it to, when they were coming to California, homeless, as told in John Steinbeck's "The Grapes of Wrath." It just seems fitting that almost 90 years later we're going to consider our labor camps to find a temporary home for those in our community that most have a need.

The calls came in to our District 4 office complaining about the plans HAKC was trying to make. Truth be told, the HAKC does not answer directly to the Board of Supervisors and are an autonomous agency whose funding comes from the state and feds. They don't work for me. But don't misunderstand. I'm thankful that HAKC is trying to be part of the solution and I look forward to seeing their plan.

Got any questions? Contact our office at 661-868-3680 or at district4@kerncounty.com.

ally put their problem on us. We have a few people who are homeless in Shafter, but I would not call it a problem. We shouldn't have to have their problem put on us." This brought up the topic of the homeless in Shafter. Does Shafter have a homelessness problem? It seems to depend on who you talk to.

Captain Diana Burnett of the Shafter Police Department said that they deal with a few people in their duties. "We see a couple of homeless people in the course of our day, and we often try to offer to take them to a shelter or somewhere where they can get some help. But, the majority of them don't want to go. They either don't want to leave Shafter or they don't want to get clean, which a lot of the shelters and their programs require."

There are also a couple of local businesses who say that there are a few people that hang out on their properties. Sammy Ayash, of Frosty King on Highway 43, said that they have a few people that hang out there, but it is usually after they are closed.

The members of the Shafter Press staff have seen firsthand the evidence of at least a few homeless people in Shafter. Before the City of Shafter, who owns the property the office is located on, cut back a grove of trees right beside the parking lot at the office, there was an encampment there. Staff coming in in the morning would see clothes hanging from the branches, cardboard boxes laid down and blankets strewn on the site, creating a makeshift camp.

At the last census of the homeless, there were 15 people counted in the Shafter/Wasco area. Councilmember Cathy Prout said that there might be a few homeless people in town, but the Shafter Police Department does a great job in keeping them moving and not allowing them to stay in one place for too long. Citizens had asked why Bakersfield and Kern

County would make their problem one for Shafter and Wasco. According to Mayor Pro-Tem Cesar Lopez and Mayor Gilbert Alvarado, who spoke briefly about the topic during the last Shafter meeting, the Kern Housing Authority decided to forego the Shafter option for this year, but they fear that the city may be in for a fight when it comes this time next year.

Clemens names Super Students

Super Students for the week of Oct. 18 at Karl Clemens Elementary School are, from left, Francisco Becerra (for being kind and standing up for friends), Kaylee Pena (for not giving up on her work in class) and Justin Flores (for super improvement in reading and writing). Middle row, from left, are Nayeli Garcia (for working hard to be an all-star student), Izaiah Rincon (for improvement in homework) and Ivan Cortes (for always smiling as he works, participates and interacts with others, and for being positive).

COMMUNITY MEETINGS
COUNTY OF KERN
PLANNING AND NATURAL RESOURCES DEPARTMENT

Kern County Planning and Natural Resources Department (PLNR) invites all residents, non-profit agencies, and special districts of unincorporated Kern County and the cities of California City, Ridgecrest, Shafter, Tehachapi and Wasco to participate in one or more community meetings to be held in the second week of the month of November, 2019. Meeting participants will have the opportunity to discuss housing and community development needs that may affect their communities. In preparation for the County's upcoming FYs 2020-2025 Consolidated Plan and 2020-2021 Annual Action Plan, information concerning the following U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development programs, which principally benefit low and moderate income persons, will also be provided:

- Community Development Block Grant Program - provides grant and loan funds to improve living environments and expand economic opportunities (estimated at slightly more than $4.53 million for FY 2020-21).
- HOME Investment Partnerships Program - provides loan and grant funds to improve the availability, accessibility, and affordability of decent housing (estimated at slightly less than $1.73 million for FY 2020-21).
- Emergency Solutions Grant Program - provides grants for services and emergency shelters for the homeless, including homelessness prevention and rapid re-housing. Matching funds are required. (approximately $388,877 for FY 2020-21).

Eligible Projects: Examples of projects which may be eligible for these federal funds include: handicap accessibility improvements; owner-occupied housing rehabilitation; affordable rental housing construction/rehabilitation; parks and recreation facilities; drainage improvements; curbs and gutters; water and sewer improvements; streets; emergency shelters; and business development and job creation activities. Application and eligibility information is available at <https://kernplanning.com/community-development/> and will be available at the community meetings.

MORTGAGE LENDER SERVICES, INC. as the duly appointed Trustee WILL SELL AT PUBLIC AUCTION TO THE HIGHEST BIDDER FOR CASH (payable at time of sale in lawful money of the United States, by cash, a cashier's check drawn by a state or national bank, a check drawn by a state or federal credit union, or a check drawn by a state or federal savings and loan association, savings association, or savings bank specified in section 5102 of the Financial Code and authorized to do business in this state) all right, title and interest conveyed to and now held by it under said Deed of Trust, described as follows: Trustor(s): FILIBERTO HERNANDEZ PINONES AND MARIA G. HERNANDEZ Deed of Trust: recorded on 07/26/2013 as Document No. 000213105868 of official records in the Office of the Recorder of KERN County, California, Date of Trustee's Sale: 11/15/2019 at 10:00AM Trustee's Sale Location: On the front steps of the City Hall South building at 1501 Truxtun Ave, Bakersfield, CA 93301 The property situated in said County, California describing the land therein: AS MORE FULLY DESCRIBED IN SAID DEED OF TRUST The property heretofore described is being sold "as is". The street address and other common designation, if any, of the real property described above is purported to be: 742 TOPAZ AVENUE, MCFARLAND, CA 93250. The undersigned Trustee disclaims any liability for any incorrectness of the street address and other common designation, if any, shown herein. Said sale will be made, but without covenant or warranty, expressed or implied, regarding title, possession, or encumbrances, to pay the remaining principal sum of the note(s) secured by said Deed of Trust, with interest thereon, as provided in said note(s), advances, if any, under the terms of the Deed of Trust, estimated fees, charges and expenses of the Trustee and of the trusts created by said Deed of Trust, to-wit: $173,188.98 (Estimated). Accrued interest and additional advances, if any, will increase this figure prior to sale. The Beneficiary may elect to bid less than the full credit bid. The beneficiary under said Deed of Trust heretofore executed and delivered to the undersigned a written Declaration of Default and Demand for Sale, and a written Notice of Default and Election to Sell. The undersigned caused said Notice of Default and Election to Sell to be recorded in the county where the real property is located and more than three months have elapsed since such recordation. If the Trustee is unable to convey title for any reason, the successful bidder's sole and exclusive remedy shall be the return of monies paid to the Trustee, and the successful bidder shall have no further recourse. NOTICE TO POTENTIAL BIDDERS: If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call 916-939-0772 or visit this Internet Web site www.nationwideposting.com, using the file number assigned to this case 130695-11. Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the Internet Web site. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale. THE ESTIMATED OPENING BID AT THE TIME OF THE INITIAL SALE DATE WILL BE $113,141.00.
