The Generals began the game strong, scoring three times in the first five minutes of the game.

With no kick-offs, the Bears took possession to open the game at their 20 yard line. The Generals' defense gave the offense a chance on the first play of the game as they recovered a Bears fumble, giving the offense the ball deep in Bears' territory.

The Generals' offense, led by quarterback Tyson Dozier, wasted no time in scoring, with Dozier scoring on a keeper with just a few ticks off of the game clock, putting Shafter up 7-0.

The Generals have benefited from a couple of transfers this year, with two players from other SSL teams joining the Generals' squad.

Chavez transfer Cameron Huerta made his presence known quickly, with a touchdown on the Generals' second offensive possession of the game on a quick out pass that Huerta turned into a 64 yard touchdown, giving the Generals a 15-7 lead. The Shafter defense had given the Generals the ball back after Arvin's second possession of the game resulted in a safety, putting Shafter up 9-0.

The Shafter defense continued to stifle the Bears' offense, allowing the Shafter of-

SERVING THE COMMUNITY SINCE 1980

Easter service begins at sunrise Sunday

JAMIE STEWART
The Shafter Press

Easter will once again be celebrated with a Sunrise Service on Sunday at 6:30 a.m. after the service was canceled last year due to the pandemic.

The service will be held at "The Green," at the intersection of Kern Street and California Avenue on the Shafter Mennonite Brethren Church lawn. The speaker will be Pastor Gabriel Espinoza and the event is sponsored by the Shafter Kiwanis Club.

With the county's designation changed to the red tier, this also means less restrictions on a variety of services and businesses.

Restaurants are allowed to offer inside dining, as long as it does not exceed 25% capacity. Gyms and movie theaters are also open, with the same occupancy restrictions. For the third straight week, the number of new cases in Shafter has dropped.

"I can't wait to go see a movie and enjoy a real tub of movie theater butter popcorn," said Madeline Clugh, who is planning to take her two grandchildren to the movies this weekend. "It is strange to think that they haven't been able to grow up going to the theater whenever they want, or gathering with their friends, not having to worry about getting sick."

These women will be vying for the title of Shafter's Distinguished Young Woman.

New Distinguished Young Woman to be named April 10

JAMIE STEWART
The Shafter Press

The Distinguished Young Woman of Shafter program, previously known as the Shafter Junior Miss program, will be held on Saturday, April 10.

Due to pandemic restrictions, the event will be shown online for viewers.

Tickets to the livestream will be sold on the event's website, Toni Frantz, of the Distinguished Young Woman of Shafter Committee, said.

Ticket holders will receive an email on April 10 with a link to the show. The program will begin at 7 p.m.

Frantz said that the committee wants to thank the community for their continued support for this program, making it one of the oldest and most supported program in the state.

The nation-wide program had made over $360 million in college scholarships available to girls across the country in 2020. Distinguished Young Woman is open to all junior girls and rewards excellence in scholastic achievements, talent, physical fitness, and self expression. After weeks of rehearsals, the girls showcase this talent in a program that will test their endurance, talent, poise, and interviewing skills.

This year, the participants will be vying for $4,000 in scholarships. There are scholarships going to the participants chosen as Distinguished Young Woman, First Alternate, Second Alternate, Physical Fitness winner, Talent winner, Scholastic award winner, Self Expression winner, and the Spirit Award winner.

New Generation Church donates food to seniors

TONI DEROSA

Volunteers carefully packed and delivered bags of food to the residents of the Poso Place Senior Apartments this past week.

The effort was part of a community outreach initiative by New Generation Church to help the seniors during the pandemic.

The bags included a variety of groceries including sandwich bread, eggs, lunch meats, fruit, cheese and canned food.

"Each church member took two to three bags home with them and filled them with food they thought others would like," Pastor Frank Sanchez said. "Each bag was filled with probably $35 worth of food."

"Everything was donated," Sanchez added. "We had five volunteers helping to sort and pass out the bags."

The bags are part of the church's community projects they try and do each month, Sanchez said.

"In January we held a food drive, February we gave away Valentine baskets to single parents and last year we gave away 80 baskets to cancer survivors," he said. "Last September and October, we went to the Kern County Sheriff's Office and provided them with meals, and we have also given meals to first responders. We have held a free carwash and cleanup days and also have a kids' day."

New Generation Church sponsors an annual Loving Our City event that is free to everyone. The event was canceled in 2020 because of the pandemic restrictions.

This year the church is considering a Loving our City event, depending on whether the city approves it for 2021 and the county remains in the red tier.

New Generation Church is located at 1017 Central and can be reached by calling 661-758-5984.

Another transfer to the Generals, Walker Maino, then ran over three Bears' defenders on a big run that gave the Generals a first down deep on the Bears' end of the field.

The Shafter defense got in on the scoring as well, with Anthony Hoxie grabbing a deflected pass out of the air and taking it the other way for a 67 yard touchdown.

Dozier ended the game with four touch-down passes, three of those to Huerta, who wound up with three touchdowns and 181 receiving yards.

Wasco Reserve season to begin in June

TONI DEROSA
Wasco Tribune

The Wasco Reserve will begin training in May to prepare for its season opener in June.

Owner of the Wasco Reserve Andrew Dunn said that the Reserve will be at Sam Lynn Ballpark in Bakersfield on May 1 at 10 a.m. to begin training.

"The new manager will be Nick Ray," Dunn said. "Previous manager Bill Moore isn't able to leave Phoenix on doctor's orders."

WASCO

Dunn also said that game tickets will be $5 per game.

There have been some issues with player housing, Dunn said.

"Our league runs host families in every city," Dunn said. "We have never paid home housing for the home team."

Dunn added that Cinderella Motel charged the players in spring training and the league in 2019.

"We spent over $31,000 at his hotel between league and players that stayed there, more than any city in California except for Monterey," Dunn added. "He increased the price to $79.99 from $49.99."

Cinderella Hotel Manager Mr. Patel said Wednesday that the hotel charged $49.99 a night for players and he was upset that someone would say players were charged a higher amount.

"It's ridiculous that they would say we charged players $79.99 a night instead of $49.99 a night," Patel said. "All we were trying to do is help the team."

The Reserve schedule can be found online at www.PecosLeague.com.

The current teams in the High Desert League include Bakersfield, Oildale, Wasco and the High Desert. The North League includes San Rafael, Martinez, Monterey and Santa Cruz.

Florist shop sees increased demand in 2020

JAMIE STEWART
The Shafter Press

Sun Country Flowers has continued producing bouquets and gifts as more people began to send flowers to loved ones, owner Carol Reichenbach said, making 2020 one of the shop's busiest years.

Instead of being able to travel or attend certain functions, Reichenbach said, people were a lot more likely to send some flowers, or a gift of some kind.

"Also, to be honest, this is the busiest year we have ever had when it comes to funeral services," she said. "I can't say what percentage of the services being held this past year were due to the virus, but overall, it was just a crazy year with the amount of funerals that were held."

More people sent flowers since they could not attend services due to the restrictions, she said.

The demand on flowers for funeral services has begun to slow now that the infection rate is also slowing and the vaccine is out, Reichenbach said.

Sun Country Flowers has been in business for 18 years, originally coming from Bakersfield.

"In Bakersfield, everyone was in such a hurry, wanting their bouquet, or whatever gift they might want, and be on their way. Here, the customers are more like family, really caring for one another," Reichenbach said. "We have been blessed this past year, thanks to the wonderful people in Shafter."

Reichenbach said that she loves this community and her loyal customers, who have been so supportive.

"This city is special, with wonderful, caring people who make it a pleasure to come to work," she said.

Sun Country Florists, at 234 Central Ave. in Shafter, is open 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday and until noon on . Phone (661) 746-5116.

Owner Carol Reichenbach shows off one of her creations.

Vietnam veterans honored with ceremony

JAMIE STEWART
The Shafter Press

Vietnam veterans were celebrated and honored during a ceremony March 29 at the Portrait of a Warrior Gallery in Bakersfield as part of National Vietnam Veterans Day. Shafter native Ed Gaede, who has been instrumental in the operations of the gallery, said that the veterans of the Vietnam War are getting their due as heroes, which had been denied them for so long. “It is important to recognize these men and women who have given their lives for us, no matter the circumstances,” Gaede said. Shafter man and author Barry Bongberg, who is a Vietnam veteran, was in attendance signing copies of his book, “Dear Mom and Dad: Letters From Vietnam.” Bongberg said that he didn’t like to talk about his time in Vietnam — avoiding the subject with friends and family — and not telling people he met that he had been in the war at all. For years, he said, he didn’t want to even think about that time in his life. After finding a box full of letters he had written to his parents while overseas, he typed the letters up and put them in a book that is now available on Amazon. “It was tough typing those up, with a lot of tears and sleepless nights,” said Bongberg, who finished the project for his daughter, who passed away before the book was published. All of the proceeds from the book are going to a nonprofit organization for breast cancer research. “This event is important for the families of those soldiers who didn’t come back from the war, giving them a chance to honor their loved ones and recognized them for the heroes that they are,” he said. There were 176 soldiers from Kern County who lost their lives in Vietnam, and each name was read on Monday by veterans and members of the gallery committee, with a bell rung throughout the ceremony, signifying “Always Remembered, Never Forgotten.” State Sen. Shannon Grove, a Shafter native, was on hand to honor those veterans as well as presenting Vietnam veteran Ken Teeters a certificate for a Bronze Star.

Shafter man, Vietnam veteran, and author Barry Bongberg signed copies of his book.

Behavioral Momentum opens 2nd facility

TONI DEROSA
Wasco Tribune

Behavioral Momentum located in Wasco on Annin recently opened its second facility in town. Behavioral Momentum opened its first facility in the city November 2019 and decided to expand to serve a younger clientele. A ribbon cutting for the new space will be held at a later date. Behavioral Momentum provides Applied Behavioral Analysis services to children diagnosed on the autism spectrum and other developmental disorders. ABA is an evidence-based therapy that can help children with disabilities achieve better outcomes, such as improved language, social skills and decreases challenging behaviors. The owners of the facility are Clinical Director Abby Dhillon and Executive Director Marina Tackitt. Tackitt and Dhillon have worked together for over 15 years and decided to go into business by first opening a facility in Bakersfield in early 2019. The center provides opportunities for teaching those with disabilities to function in the mainstream world and become gainfully employed in the workforce. Clients at the 7th Street facility will be guided by a staff of about 10, who all care for the clients at the centers in Bakersfield and now two in Wasco. “Our staff does all the hard work,” Dhillon said. The funding for the center is through private insurance companies in which the insurance companies are billed by the center. The facilities are funded by Kern Family Healthcare. The first facility in Wasco is located at 120 Annin Ave. “This second facility will be for children under 5 years old,” Tackitt said. “The facility on Annin Avenue is for those older than 5.” “The majority of the kids are not in school yet,” Dhillon added. “Right now, we have about 10 clients.” Both women said that the younger students will be taught life skills. “The goal is to get the kids ready for school,” Tackitt said. The women now own a total of four Behavioral Momentum centers. “We work with the clients at home, at school or within the community,” Dhillon added. “We provide behavioral consultation services to adults living in group homes and adults with disabilities living with foster families. Both women are excited about working with all age groups and mentioned that their work with those with intellectual disabilities and behavioral issues are necessary. “Usually clients that present with Down Syndrome have a secondary diagnosis, so Down Syndrome is not a diagnosis,” Tackitt added.

Office Manager Alissa Soto

Most of their clients are insurance referrals and all staff is trained and supervised. Marina Tackitt is a registered behavioral technician and Abby Dhillon is a board certified behavioral analyst. The centers are open from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday and Saturday by appointment only and can be reached by calling 661- 229-0546 or by email at Behavioralmomentumservices@gmail.com.

Wasco football suffers loss against Tulare Union

COACH CHAD MARTINEZ
Special to Wasco Tribune

PASTOR'S CORNER

Water walker

STEVE DOBBS

Community Circle Church

Have you ever had a problem so big only God could fix it? You may be going through a storm right now and you see no way out. All of us have storms in our lives. You are either in a storm, coming out of a storm or headed into the storm. You are in good company. The 12 disciples faced a storm only Jesus could rescue them from.

Matthew 14:22-24

"Immediately Jesus told his followers to get into the boat and go ahead of him across the lake. He stayed there to send the people home. After he had sent them away, he went by himself up into the hills to pray. It was late, and Jesus was there alone. By this time, the boat was already far away from land. It was being hit by waves, because the wind was blowing against it."

I believe the disciples, like us, didn't have a fear problem, they had a faith problem. It's not that we need to fear less, but we need to trust God more.

Matthew 14:29-30

"So He said, 'Come.' And when Peter had come down out of the boat, he walked on the water to go to Jesus. But when he saw that the wind was boisterous, he was afraid; and beginning to sink he cried out, saying, 'Lord, save me!'"

There are five observations that can be made about the water walking.

First, anything God leads you to do will initially involve some level of fear. Remember, Jesus sent the disciples into the storm. It's in the storm He gets our full attention.

Second, the greatest purposes of your life cannot be discovered while you are hiding. You can be hiding and living but you can't be hiding and thriving. The storm is rough and the waves are high and the wind is really strong. Whatever your boat is, if you get out of your boat, the boat might sink, but there is a guarantee if you don't get out of the boat, you will never walk on water. If you want to walk on water you have to get out of the boat.

Third, fear will never go away. If you follow Jesus with your life, you will have fear. Part of the growth is moving into new territories and new challenges. When we do this we will experience fear. The only way to avoid fear is to avoid growth. Fear and growth are a package deal. You have to be comfortable being uncomfortable if you're going to follow Jesus.

Fourth, there are things worse than failure. We focus a lot on Peter's failure in this story. He took his eyes off Jesus and sank. Peter messed up and failed. But there were 11 other bigger failures in that boat. They failed quietly and privately. Their failure went unnoticed and not criticized. Only Peter knew the shame of public failure. But the bigger failures were the guys who stayed in the boat. Peter was the only one who knew the thrill of walking on the water.

Fifth, to truly follow Jesus, you must deny comfort as the ultimate value of your life. Why would I get out of the boat? Spiritual maturity comes from getting out of the boat. Discover your purpose by getting out of the boat.

What does getting out of the boat look like for us? Maybe for somebody it is starting to be faithful with your finances and you start trusting God and tithing on a consistent basis. For others it might be you step out and invite that friend or family member to church. For another it might be getting baptised. Or any of a thousand different things that will make you uncomfortable and at the same time advance the kingdom of God and change the world around us.

You can't do it in the boat or your comfort zone. There is no way Peter could have ever walked on water in the boat. Peter realized the water was where Jesus was. Peter wanted to be where Jesus was.

There are two things to know if you are going to be a water walker.

First, when you fail, Jesus will be there to pick you up. Not just once, not twice, but as many times as it takes.

Second, when you get out of the boat, you might walk on water.

God will use you to do greater things than you ever imagined. But it won't happen in the boat. The first step is always the most difficult step. But it's the first step to walking on water. The best is yet to come.

COUCH'S CORNER

Ag and energy working collaboratively

DAVID COUCH

Kern County Supervisor 4th District

I love it when Ag and energy work together in Kern County to show the world how to do things better and this week, it happened again.

The two industries worked together in Arvin at Tasteful Selections, a pioneer producer and distributor of the world's bite-sized potatoes. On March 24, District 4 staff was on hand to attend the groundbreaking ceremony for an innovative microgrid energy technology created by Concentric Power, Inc. that will help Tasteful Selections maintain production while weathering any disruptions in grid power.

The technology uses solar, natural gas, and batteries in a smart technology that optimizes performance while keeping energy costs at their lowest. It is truly another example of using the best minds and technologies to find solutions to our problems associated with food production, power outages, carbon emissions, energy costs and sustainability.

My friends Nathan and Bob Bender,

Tasteful Selections chief operating officer and president, respectively, deserve credit for being willing to invest in this new, green technology but they are smart business people and they know their investment will bear fruit in lower energy costs, increased production and better quality assurance.

They know in the long term their bottom line will be enhanced. And that is good news for the 163 Tasteful Selections employees and the thousands of farmers, laborers, processors and distributors who work in and around Tasteful Selections to feed the world, one bite-size potato at a time.

For Tasteful Selections to be successful, though, they need power that is cheap and sustainable and with the innovative

Fourth District Supervisor David Couch

Concentric Power, Inc. technology, they finally have it. Their microgrid technology allows them to essentially locate a power plant where a grid may not be available or dependable, anywhere in the world. When you think about the potential for agriculture anywhere in the world, that they can generate reliable power wherever the crops grow best, this promises great opportunity for food production where it is most needed and most fertile.

We're thankful CEO Brian Curtis has chosen Arvin as his first location in the valley for this smart, microgrid technology.

This project is exciting to me because it's another component of Kern County's "all of the above" approach to energy. Where renewable, energy like wind, solar, bioenergy, geothermal, etc. can exist side by side with oil and gas production. And what I like the most about it is that rather than spend time debating which form of energy production is best, it uses innovation to make all forms better.

Using Concentric's smart technology, Tasteful Selections will be using energy from the grid or from its own power production whenever those options make the most sense as far as cost and availability.

California needs to learn from this model, what we in Kern County already know, that innovation can lead us to solutions where "all of the above" energy options provide us with the cleanest air, the least carbon emissions, energy and economic security, jobs, and sustainable growth. Just like our energy options shouldn't be one or the other, our innovative solutions don't have to be one or the other either, but all of the above. Let's work together, not against each other, to optimize our energy options, just like they are doing at Tasteful Selections.

Feel free to contact our office at district4@kerncounty.com or call us at 661-868-3680. Thanks and have a safe week.

PETS OF THE WEEK

Red needs a home

Red is an approximately 2-year-old, male, Terrier mix who came in as a stray. Red is a small red/chestnut/orange short-haired Terrier. He is slightly timid toward staff and his behavior will be monitored daily. He is great with other dogs. At the time it is unknown if Red is house/crate trained. Dogs are not tested with children and cats.

He will be available for adoption on April 1. If this is your dog contact the shelter as soon as possible.

Everyone is welcome to adopt from our facility. Adopters can be from out of town or local. Call to set up an appointment to spend some time with him and possibly adopt him that day. The Wasco Animal Shelter is a first-call, first-serve shelter. Appointments made via email are not available.

All dogs will be neutered/spayed once adopted. Depending on the availability of our local vet, it is not a guarantee that the animal will be spayed/neutered the same day.

Rescue is a nonprofit organization with a tax exempt 501(c)(3). If you never pulled from the Wasco Animal Shelter, email us two references and a copy of your 501(c)(3) form.

If you have any questions, make sure to give the Wasco Animal Shelter a call at 661-758-7240. The shelter is located at 5409 7th Street.

Trina is looking for her forever home

This girl is Trina, a brindle and white Pit Bull/Shepherd mix. Trina is about 1 year old and is a really sweet pup. She will need someone to teach her manners and some basic commands. She is shy until she gets to know you.

A large yard with a tall fence would be a big bonus to help keep this girl safe.

If you would like to meet Trina, come to the Shafter Animal Shelter at 18849 S. Shafter Ave. The hours at the shelter are Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. They are open Wednesdays from 1 p.m. to 7 p.m. You can also contact them at 661-746-2140.

HIGH-SPEED RAIL BUILDING FOR THE FUTURE

Letter from Central Valley Regional Director Garth Fernandez:

As we move forward with construction on the high-speed rail project, the entire team at the California High-Speed Rail Authority (Authority) is working diligently to ensure that the infrastructure improvements within the City of Wasco is being completed through a collaborative process with the City of Wasco staff.

As the Authority's new Central Valley Regional Director, I'm tasked with not only overseeing the success of this project and the 119-miles that are currently under construction, but also ensuring our project makes a positive impact within the community. This is why we, as a state, have continued to work with and update the City of Wasco and its staff as we explore various opportunities to enable the city to address their concerns regarding the Farmworker Housing complex.

Beyond the $10 million provided for the new housing complex that opened in 2019, we have applied for a federal grant through the Infrastructure for Rebuilding America (INFRA) program, that if successful, would utilize federal dollars to improve road conditions along State Route 46 between F and J streets, and improve conditions at the SR 46 and 43 intersection. It would also help demolish the former farmworker housing to be redeveloped for future economic development and local job-creation for your community. Earlier this month, the City of Wasco submitted a support letter for this grant funding request.

Through the COVID-19 pandemic, the Authority has and will continue to deliver the nation's first high-speed rail system that is generating economic investment and has created more than 5,500 construction jobs within the Central Valley, with more than 800 workers residing in Kern County.

If you have any questions or wish to hear more about the project, you are invited to attend our upcoming Zoom community meeting on Tuesday, April 6, 2021 from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m.

Thomas "Scott" McDonald Nov. 24, 1979 -- Feb. 5, 2021

Thomas Scott McDonald, whose lifelong quest to find, make, and share art to enrich the lives of family and friends, passed away on Feb. 5, 2021.

Scott was a traveler who always sought out new experiences. He shared everything he loved — music, books, movies, ideas — with everyone he knew. His sincerity, sense of humor, and open-mindedness left a lasting impression with family and friends near and far.

And to everyone who knew him, Scott was an artist. He started drawing cartoons as a boy, took up watercolors early in high school, and eventually devoured every medium he encountered: acrylics, oils, sculpture, film, claymation and spray art. In addition to art, he loved music and was a talented musician and creative soul.

Scott had a great smile — broad, toothy and infectious — that perfectly matched his sense of humor. He had a knack for impersonations, improvisations, one liners, puns and pranks. He was charismatic, which was good, because he also liked getting into mischief — and mischief is never much fun without the company of friends.

To his friends, he was Mickey D. He was never bored, and because of that, always fun to be around. He was always excited to share whatever book, album or movie he was into. He encouraged people to try new things and pursue their passions. Just as often, he wrangled them into helping him with his.

He was open-hearted, nonjudgmental and never got angry. He balanced the social side of his personality with fruitful time spent alone with his hobbies.

Scott was born to Elana and Thomas McDonald on Nov. 24, 1979 in Bakersfield. After graduating from Shafter High School in 1998, he went to college at the University of California, Santa Barbara, where he studied English and visual arts. In 2008, he earned his teaching credential and worked as a substitute teacher throughout Kern County before landing an art position at Haven Drive Junior High. His fellow teachers remember how proud he was of his students, and many of his students remembered him years later for his talent and enthusiasm. He also was involved with the Arts Council of Kern County, and his paintings were exhibited in a showcase of local artists.

Scott will be lovingly remembered by his family, including his sister, Kibbe McDonald Rubin; her husband, Brad; and their children, Megan and Zack. In addition to his family, Scott also will be fondly missed by the numerous friends he made throughout his lifetime.

To honor Scott's legacy, a Celebration of Life was held at Tin Cup Coffee on Sunday, March 28, from 10 to 4 p.m.

HOW TO ADVERTISE EFFECTIVELY AND ECONOMICALLY

Our sales representatives are pleased to help you compose the most effective ad at a minimum cost.
Here are two key points to remember about your ads:

1. If it's an item you're selling, remember to include as much information as possible The more potential buyers know about the item you have for sale, the more interest they have in calling you.

2. Our reputation for Classified Advertising results is excellent. But not every potential buyer will read your ad on the same day.

The majority of our private party advertisers take advantage of our discount rates. This simply means that you order your ad for two consecutive issues, but should you get the results you desire before the ad has expired, you may call and cancel the ad and be refunded for the days
the ad did not appear. Except for GR - no refunds or changes accepted.

GENERAL POLICY

1. Rates and deadlines subject to change without notice.
2. The Shafter Press and Wasco Tribune make every effort to avoid errors in advertisements. Each ad is carefully read back for approval. However, mistakes sometimes slip through. We ask that you check your ad carefully. If you should find an error, report it to the Classified Department right away
by calling 661-292-5100
and asking for Classified.
We regret that we cannot be responsible for more than one incorrect publication if you do not call the error to our attention. The Shafter Press and Wasco Tribune cannot be liable for an amount greater than the amount paid for such advertising.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR BUSINESS..

OBITUARIES

Mary Helen Vazquez
Sept. 6, 1940 –
March 23, 2021

Mary Helen Vazquez was born on Sept. 6, 1940 in the Mexican Colony of Shafter to parents Pastor Vazquez and Maria Torres Vazquez. Mary Helen was a beloved and loving mother, daughter, sister and grandmother. She first drew breath and gave a loud cry at her birth, pronouncing her presence as the last-born child to a large Mexican-American family who had emigrated and were forming a new life for themselves in the United States.

Helen was a fiercely proud American who completed high school in Shafter, earned her certificate at beauty school in Bakersfield, and journeyed to Los Angeles when she was 25 years old with her sister, Adriana. She did hair for many years in downtown LA, made friends and enjoyed city life. She and her sister Licha took pleasure trips to Acapulco, Mexico City and New York.

In her 30s, she gave birth to her two daughters, Angel and Nicole, and raised them as a single mother. Later in life, she worked as an information referral specialist for the City of Los Angeles Department of Aging. She retired and moved back home to Shafter on the property where she was raised and spent the last decade of her life there. Helen spent her final days surrounded by family in Sacramento. She entered eternal life on March 23, 2021.

Helen is survived by her beloved daughter, Nicole Vazquez; her grandson, Michael Anthony Rovelli; and her nephew, Stephan Vazquez Carrillo. Helen is preceded in death by her daughter, Delfina Angel Jennette, and her 11 brothers and sisters: Anthony, David “Chano,” Esther, Armando, Nicolaza, Mary Louise “Licha,” Pastor, Baby Delfina, Angel “Jules,” Adriana and Baby Angel Jesus.

As the last surviving sibling of her generation, she goes to our eternal Father surrounded by her family, to a rose-decorated seat at the banquet of paradise. May Helen rest in peace, knowing that she will always be loved for the beautiful, strong, independent woman she always was.

Carrie Ann Castañeda
April 13, 1985 –
March 20, 2021

On Saturday, March 20, 2021, Carrie Ann Castañeda, loving wife and mother of three children, was called home to heaven at age 35.

Carrie was born on April 13, 1985 to Carrie Ann Gallardo and William Herrera. She was raised from an infant by her grandparents, Mary Ellen and Raymond Gallardo (mom and dad) in Wasco. Carrie graduated from Wasco High School in 2003. On Feb. 12, 2005, she married her high school sweetheart and true love Santos Castañeda. God blessed them with three handsome, smart, and courageous sons, Santos III, Raymond, and Gabriel.

Carrie was a compassionate soul that touched so many lives. She had a passion for serving others. She worked at Wasco High School in the cafeteria and always made sure the students were taken care of and well fed. Carrie also was a volunteer cook for the Compassion Ministry at Canyon Hills in Wasco. She was a wonderful caregiver for her elderly dad. She truly had a heart of gold. Carrie loved to have family and friends come over to hang out, cook together, catch a game, play loteria, or anything that kept the family close. She was known for her sweet smile, infectious laugh, kind heart and tremendous strength. She combated stomach cancer leaning on her faith in God and knowing that no matter what, she fought this battle with peace. “Be strong and courageous. Do not be afraid or discouraged, for the Lord your God will be with you wherever you go.” (Joshua 1:9)

Carrie was preceded in death by her mom, Mary Ellen Gallardo and mother, Carrie Ann Gallardo. She is survived by her husband, sons, dad, sisters, brothers, aunts, uncles, and many cousins, nieces, nephews, and friends. A Celebration of Life service is forthcoming and will be announced at a later time.

Kyle Krause
July 10, 1986 –
March 21, 2021

Kyle Edward Krause, beloved son, brother, husband and father, was welcomed into Heaven by our Savior on March 21, 2021.

Kyle was born July 10, 1986 in Bakersfield, California to Kin and Kathy Krause. He grew up on the 1,360-acre family farm in the small farming community of Wasco, where he and his younger brother, Justin, acquired a strong work ethic and love of the outdoors. Kyle loved spending time at the family cabin at Shaver Lake, snowboarding and water-skiing during the summer and winter months. It was here that he began his love of fishing and the outdoors, which would lead to the immense joy he found in hiking, camping and hunting with friends and family.

As a standout scholar and athlete in grammar school and high school, Kyle loved competing in academic and sports competitions, winning countless awards representing Wasco’s best and brightest at the regional and state level.

He started showing swine as a 4-H member in grammar school and was an active member of Future Farmers of America at Wasco High School, attaining his State Farmer degree. Kyle loved competing in sports, as a Little League All-Star team member and with the local recreation and high school swim teams, but his love for playing basketball would result in a dream come true as an NCAA Scholar/Athlete at California State Polytechnic University, Pomona. At 6-foot-8, he played center for the Cal Poly Pomona Broncos throughout college and was a member of the NCAA Division II Men’s Basketball National Runner Up Team in 2009. He graduated Cal Poly Pomona summa cum laude with a bachelor of science in mechanical engineering and was named Scholar Athlete of the Year four years in a row. He also received the Dean’s Scholar of the Year honors.

But he wasn’t done. In true Kyle overachiever form, he was also president of the Cal Poly Pomona Baja Racing team which designs, builds and races in an annual international collegiate off-road vehicle competition. Kyle and his team won the 2008 competition, beating nearly 200 entries, bringing bragging rights home to the Cal Poly Pomona School of Engineering.

What makes Kyle’s life even more impressive is that he accomplished all his goals after being diagnosed with Type 1 juvenile diabetes at age 12. He proved to himself and everyone around him that this disease would not control him; he controlled it, never allowing diabetes to diminish his activities or accomplishments in life. It is no surprise that he also was active in the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation.

While attending Cal Poly Pomona, Kyle met the love of his life, and immediately following graduation married Erin Wendt on June 27, 2009. With a job secured at BAE Systems in the defense industry, Kyle and Erin moved to Michigan, where they knew no one, and ultimately settled in Bloomfield Hills. Two years later he accepted an engineering position with Peterson Spring, where he went on to create the Peterson Mechatronics group dedicated to designing, developing and building machines that manufacture spring parts for vehicles. While at Peterson, Kyle was also provided the opportunity to attain his MBA from Michigan State University, graduating with honors.

Kyle and Erin were blessed with the birth of their first son, Colton, on December 16, 2013, and Owen arrived 19 months later on July 6, 2015. Kyle and Erin embraced the Growing Families International ministry, which has provided biblical teaching to help raise their children as tomorrow’s leaders. Kyle gave everything he had into raising his sons to know God and live life to its fullest. Colton and Owen will forever be the embodiment of Kyle’s strength and love.

In April 2020, Kyle moved his family to Waterford, Mich., and purchased a waterfront home on Watkins Lake. That same month he began his new job with Cadillac Products Automotive Company, where he continued his legacy as a premier problem solver, designer and builder of automation machinery to enhance productivity. Kyle loved working at CPAC, where he felt blessed to work for a family-owned company that provides employees the ability to achieve and create their own path within the organization.

Kyle’s humble nature would lead you to believe that none of these accomplishments ever happened. No matter how hectic his schedule was or what hobby he was working on, Kyle always found time to lend a helping hand to others. We talk about his achievements on paper, but it is what he gave to us with his spirit and love that will forever remain in our hearts.

Erin Krause: “There is a saying -- you don’t know what you have until it is gone. Well, I’m here, with all of you, saying that we all knew what we had the whole time. It’s the kind of life he lived where you just knew by the way he carried himself that only greatness was possible.”

There will be a private service on Monday, March 29, with a Celebration of Life In July for family and friends. Condolences can be offered through the funeral home website at: modetzfuneralhomes.com/obituaries/Kyle-Edward-Krause?obId=20443823. Also, a GoFundMe page has been established to help the family during this untimely and very tender time: <https://gofund.me/bbf84079>.
