City OKs Richland resource officer

Sees police presence

JAMIE STEWART
The Shafter Press

A Police Department resource officer will be assigned to the Richland School District to deal with issues that require a police presence.

Shafter Police Chief Zimmermann addressed the City Council Tuesday night, explaining the need for the agreement between the district and the city.

The officer would be responsible for serving in the school district three hours per day. This position also would interact with the staff and students of the district.

Members of the council agreed that the move was important, with Mayor Pro-Tem

Chad Givens saying, “Yes, it is needed, but it is unfortunate that it is needed.” The council voted for the assignment, which will be apid for by the school district.

Zimmermann also presented the need for an ordinance for the department to use military equipment, such as less-lethal shotguns and less-lethal rounds of ammunition, as well as other military equipment.

The use of the equipment is nothing new, but council approval is now required under state law..

The council also approved an agree-making my customers feel beautiful and leaving them with improved self-confidence."

Before Pelayo opened her salon 15 years ago, she spent her youth learning from her aunt, who previously owned the salon for 10 years.

"Watching her enjoy her work and seeing how she treated her customers inspired me to pursue my goal of becoming a beautician," said Pelayo.

Vicky's New Image Salon offers men, women and children services to clean, condition, strengthen, cut, style and color their hair. They also do makeup, waxing and men's beard shaves.

"I am trained and licensed by Bakersfield's most important cosmetology school."

Wasco OKs solid waste rate adjustments

VERONICA JACUINDE
Wasco Tribune

The Wasco City Council held a public hearing to adopt a resolution approving the 5-year solid waste rate adjustment schedule for property owners and tenants – and then approved the planned increases.

“Tonight, we have a couple of steps concerning the five-year solid waste rate adjustment. We heard numerous reports from our consultant in previous meetings that worked with the city on this project. The council approved the mailing of the notices of the proposed rate schedule,” said City Manager Scott Hurlbert.

There were a total of 6,326 notices sent out to the community asking for comment. In addition, the city asked for feedback on its website, and others without computer access were encouraged to come to City Hall with their con-

Businesses passing on card fees to customers

JAMIE STEWART
The Shafter Press

If you have eaten out in Shafter recently, you may have noticed that there was an extra charge on your bill if you paid with a credit or debit card

SHAFTER

For example, a sign states that customers can take advantage of a 3.5% discount if you pay for your purchase with cash at the Generals’ Headquarters on Lerdo Highway. This is another way of saying that you will be charged an extra 3.5% on your bill if you choose to use a debit or credit card. This has been a growing custom at local eateries in the past couple of months.

A Tony’s Firehouse employee said that the charge is a result of the increase in fees charged them by credit card companies. The businesses are passing this cost on to the customer.

This is not the case for all businesses in Kern County. There is no law or particular practice that is in place. Each business is choosing to impose this extra fee on their own.

When contacted, Mayor Cathy Prout said, “The only an-

Festival entertaining for young and old

JAMIE STEWART

A new transplant to Shafter, All Seated in a Barn, a horse and donkey rescue organization, hosted an Easter event that gave children of all ages the chance to hunt

Easter eggs, meet a variety of animals up close and personal, and also entertained the adults in the family, with music and food.

The event attracted hundreds to the complex on Imperial Street on Saturday,. The eggs were replenished continuously, giving kids a chance to hunt and find their share.

The egg hunt was just the start of this day of fun.

There were horse and pony rides, with guides to help the kids around the yards, leading the horses around the pens. The experience was a first for many of the attendees, such as Martha Engold, who brought her two sons to the event. Engold, with camera in hand, watched her youngest son, Noah, get on the horse. She couldn't hold back the tears after seeing Noah's bright smile as he was led around the ring. "This was his first chance to see a horse up close," said Engold. "This is amazing."

This sentiment was a popular one, with a lot of kids getting on a horse, or petting a llama or donkey for the first time. "She had never had a chance to see a zebra or llama before," said Armando Diaz, who brought his daughter to the event. "She loves animals and this is just the perfect day." In addition, there was face-painting, a variety of games for the kids to play and a great variety of food to choose from.

The kids also had the chance to get their picture taken at the kissing booth sponsored by Marley's Mutts, with the kids cuddling with a dog with bunny ears. They could also get their picture taken with an adorable pair of pot-bellied pigs, all dressed up for the occasion.

All Seated in a Barn has been rescuing horses, donkeys, and other equines since its inception in 2018. Tahlia Fischer and her sister were watching television one night and saw a donkey that was 12 hours away from being euthanized. They fell in love with the donkey, and by the end of the night, they owned themselves a donkey, and a rescue effort was born.

They now have rescued hundreds of equines, not only getting them adopted, but also caring for them and using the animals for therapy for people who benefit from their interaction.

The event is a big fundraiser for the group, and the proceeds go to helping those animals who are in need.

Passion of the Christ reenactment returns

VERONICA JACUINDE
Wasco Tribune

The St. John Evangelist Parish gave a moving rendition of the reenactment of the crucifixion of Jesus Christ in a large production with over 25 actors dressed in historical costumes. They provided an accurate representation and wowed the audience with an original show, complete with an elaborate stage and custom lighting.

Celeste Arreola participated in the event and played one of the royal dancing ladies in waiting.

"Today was special because it was Good Friday, and we got to celebrate the passion of Christ. It showed how he sacrificed himself for us," Arreola said.

"I was happy that we were able to resume the production after covid."

Actors enjoyed the relationships they developed with the cast.

"The best thing about it is how close you get with the other actors," said Alexandra Martinez.

"The event was exciting because the team worked really hard to perfect the play. I loved working with my fellow believers and especially performing before a large audience."

There were almost 200 in attendance.

Many actors saw it as a symbol of faith.

Avelardo Vallecillo, who played one of the apostles, said, "I wanted to feel closer to Jesus and experience how he gave his life for us."

Iris Paredes said, "It was important because we got to learn what Jesus went through and everything he stood for."

"It is always a touching experience to remember all of the suffering Jesus experienced to take our sins from us through this resurrection, which is what we honor on Easter Sunday," said Mayor Gilberto Reyna.

It was a family and community event. "We came from McFarland with my whole family. It was important to share this experience with my children," said Betha Rosales.

"The best part is that it brings the Catholic community together. It was good to see many people here, especially after a two-year hiatus due to the pandemic," said Mayor Reyna.

Some came because it was a tradition.

"I have been coming since I was a little girl, and it gets better each time. It is something we have been doing as a family for many years," Maria Rosas said,

The audience was impressed.

"The acting, costumes and stage were amazing," said Teresa Cortez. "I thought it was authentic."

Vianney Alvarado said, "I think they did an excellent job. I like how everybody stayed in character, and it was exciting how they paid attention to details to show us what happened."

"I was fascinated with how they actually put Jesus on the cross. It was incredible and a special touch," said Laura Martinez.

"Everything was great, and I connected with my higher power," said Alejandro Morales. "I felt like everyone was united."

Fernanda Rodriguez said, "It was very entertaining, inspiring and suspenseful."

Much effort went into it.

"We practiced for a month, sometimes for three hours each session. This was my third year playing Jesus. I do it for my faith and to share the message that Jesus died for us," said Eulogio Arreola, who volunteered to design the stage and props and coordinate the lighting and special effects.

"A great deal of work was put in, and I am happy that it all paid off," said Arreola.

"I appreciate everyone who participated in making today memorable," Father Guillermo Preciado said. "It was a compelling performance that I think touched the hearts of those that came."

Pelayo attends beauty conferences twice a year to further her education and keep up with the latest trends.
"I try to always be at the forefront of styling and coloring. Going to these conferences, I learn a lot that I bring back and apply to benefit our clients."
The salon has a warm and inviting environment to make one feel comfortable. "We are friendly and hospitable, plus we are quick for those clients with a busy schedule," said Pelayo.
"Visiting us is fun, and there is always lots of laughter. Some even think it's therapeutic because we get to know our clients well and develop a special bond. They are loyal to us as we are to them."

Hair cuts for women are just $30, while cuts for men and children are $20. "We also give a senior discount which not many other salons in town provide," said Pelayo.
"You can't beat our prices."
The salon is very conscious of the many Wasco residents living on tight budgets, such as agricultural workers.
"This is our way of showing our appreciation for everything they do for the local economy," Pelayo said.
She also regularly donates to several youth organizations, including like the Wasco Bengals cheerleading and football teams.

"I do this because Wasco is my home and my whole family lives here. It's important for me to support causes that matter to the community."

Wasco Reserve needs host families

VERONICA JACUINDE
Wasco Tribune

The Wasco Reserve professional baseball team is looking for host families. It's like gaining another member of your family rather than just lending a room.

George Swenson and his wife, Patty, have been hosting players since 2014.

"We enjoy opening our home to the players and receiving them as family. We are happy to extend a helping hand while they play out the season," Swenson said.

"It truly is a wonderful experience. All of the players we have hosted are respectful, contribute to the household and really appreciate us. We become their friends and a strong foundation so they can focus on the game."

Swenson said the best part about hosting is that they develop special relationships.

"Over the years, we have housed 25 players. To date, we keep in contact with most. It is nice to see them hone their skills, and we know that by providing shelter, they can realize their dream of playing baseball on a national team."

"It's fun to have the young people around," said Swenson. Players enjoy the experience as well.

Ryan Osborne, a Wasco Reserve player and assistant manager, has stayed with three host families. "It has been great, and it's like a second family. Despite coming from New York, I feel close to home," said Osbourne. "What I like most is having that support. Whether you have a good or bad game, they will be there to encourage you and pick you up."

"Also, if you have children in the home, it is nice for them to learn from a professional athlete."

Host families make players feel welcomed and help them save money to focus their time on the field.

"We need about 17 host families in Wasco. It is hard to recruit players if they don't have anywhere to live. They can't afford to come out here and be on their own," said Andrew Dunn, owner of the Pecos League overseeing all 16 teams.

Players stay for the summer and come from throughout the United States. A lot are recent college graduates, so they have limited budgets.

The season starts on May 24, which is right around the corner. Any family that houses a player is making a difference in their lives.

The team plays in Wasco, Bakersfield and throughout northern California. They also travel to New Mexico and Colorado.

"It will be an exciting season, and host families make it possible for the players to participate in the league. We are looking for homes that will provide a warm and friendly environment," said Dunn.

"If you love baseball and the idea of sharing your home with a professional baseball player, this is an opportunity for you."

For more information about hosting a player, visit WascoReserve.com or email info@pecosleague.com.

Trash cans on the street no answer

To the editor:

This letter is in regards to the mandate that our three trash cans are in our streets and not in the alley. I agree with Garry Nelson's letter to the Shafter Press dated March 31, 2022. However, the Rotary motto doesn't have a safety component. Many of our streets have no sidewalks, forcing students walking to and from school to travel in the street. When you add a line of garbage cans to the line of parked cars, those children will now be in the middle of the street. This is a dangerous situation for our community's children and citizens.

It seems that some alleys have low-hanging wires (a safety issue) and improperly disposed trash (a code enforcement issue). The city has found these issues make the alleys unusable for trash pick-up. The City Council views the messy trash pickup/garbage collection as an issue and has been unable to correct this blight. Now, this alley blight will remain and probably grow, and that same blight will migrate to the streets with our trash cans.

It is truly disappointing that "input" meetings are in reality lectures to the citizens telling them how it is going to be to keep the "powers that be" happy. I expect this letter will have no impact ... Like many public boards and public agencies there has been a deaf ear to any and all expressed concerns by the citizens.

PET OF THE WEEK

Dodger is looking for a loving home

Dodger came into the Wasco Animal Shelter as a stray. He is approximately 10 months old, male and a pit bull. He is great with staff and small dogs but has not been tested with large dogs. At the time it is unknown if Dodger is house/ crate trained. Dogs are not tested with children and cats; his behavior toward cats and children are unknown. Dodger will be available for adoption on Tuesday, April 26.

Everyone is welcome to adopt from our facility, and we like to give everyone the same opportunity to adopt. Adopters can be from out of town and/or local. We do not place holds for adoptions. Adopters are responsible for transportation.

Adoptions are on a first come, first serve basis beginning at 8 a.m. on the date they are available. Call us the day before their availability to make sure the pet is still for adoption.

Rescue is a nonprofit organization with a tax exempt 501(c)(3). If you have never taken a pet from the Wasco Animal Shelter, please email us two references (vet preferably) and a copy of your 501(c)(3) form to eubarraza@cityofwasco.org.

Wasco OKs solid waste rate adjustments

cerns.

A public hearing for comments from the community was held; however, no one showed up.

Protest letters received were then tabulated to establish if there was a majority protest threshold of 50% plus one to result in a target of 2,738.

The number of received protest letters was 183, which was insufficient to constitute a majority vote and resulted in the protest process ending.

The council unanimously approved the adjustment schedule.

The council presented Sharon Nicol and Nancy Waterhouse with a Community Service Recognition Award for devoting their time and efforts to the Rose Garden Project at Barker Park.

“They committed to volunteering their time and made a meaningful contribution to the city of Wasco community,” said Mayor Gilberto Reyna. “They put together a design and received donations. The result is a beautiful rose garden.”

“I really think this is an example of what our city residents can do when they set their minds to it.”

Fire Division Chief of Kern County Fire Joe Appleton reported that Engine 31 responded to 17 fires in the city, 136 calls for medical assistance and 178 calls overall.

“We are preparing for wildfire season. Things are starting to dry out, so we will start to see more grass fires,” Appleton said.

A representative and alternate representative were selected to serve on the San Joaquin Valley Air Pollution Control District Special City Selection Committee.

Through a unanimous vote, it was agreed that Council Member Alex Garcia continue serving as a principal representative, with Council Member Vincent Martinez named alternate.

Council Member Michael Lynch volunteered for and was named to the council’s ad hoc committee on California High-Speed Rail Authority issues.

Businesses passing on card fees to customers

answer I have at this time is restaurants and other establishments are passing their costs on to you and me.”

This sentiment is the one that is most common throughout the county. A rough survey found that only about a quarter of the businesses in town and the surrounding area are imposing this fee for customers who use cards to pay for their purchases.

This practice is made possible because of a law that has been overturned in California. Until this year, there were 10 states in the nation that prohibited credit fees to be imposed on transactions. California was among the states, along with Florida, Kansas, Maine, New York, Oklahoma, Texas and Utah. A higher court ruled that the ban on surcharges in California was unconstitutional, and the ban was lifted.

According to the merchants, there is a discount for using cash, instead of seeing it as a charge for using a debit or credit card. Either way, the change is not sitting well with consumers.

I won’t be going back to businesses that are going to charge me a different price if I use a card instead of cash. Doesn’t matter if you call it a discount or not, it isn’t right,” said James Rongold, who was leaving the Generals Headquarters. “I won’t be back again if something doesn’t change.”

We could not find any businesses in Wasco that have imposed this extra charge, or offering customers a discount for cash purchases, with a number of the retailers not knowing anything about the growing practice.

PASTORS CORNER

REV. RUBEN ZARTMAN
Ebenezer Reformed Church, Shafter

Christians are against murder. After all, it’s prohibited by the law of God (#6 in the Ten Commandments, Exodus 20:13). In fact, even the beginning of murder — hostility and hatred in the heart — is ruled out by the Sermon on the Mount (Matthew 5:22).

And yet there is one murder we celebrate and give thanks for: the judicial murder or unjust execution of Jesus Christ when Pontius Pilate was Procurator of Judea for the Roman Empire.

The moment I say that, of course, I have to hurry up and explain. It was not right for Jesus to be executed. He had done nothing wrong, as Pilate himself acknowledged (Luke 23:14). It shouldn’t have been possible to use false witnesses and mob uproar to pressure the government to execute a righteous man. The judicial murder of Jesus is a devastating indictment of how very unjust human justice systems can be.

So it’s not as a murder that Christians commemorate this reality. It’s not because it was unjust that we give thanks for it. It was an enormous sin and a terrible crime, and in that light is very bad indeed. But that isn’t the whole story. There’s a reason Jesus allowed himself to be arrested, falsely accused, wrongfully condemned and ultimately executed. He told his disciples that he could have stopped all that happening

Rev. Ruben Zartman

(Matthew 27:53), but he chose not to. And there are at least three reasons to celebrate and give thanks for that.

The acceptance of this terrible death displays the love of Christ.

The reason Jesus allowed this miscarriage of justice to fall on his head, was love. As he said, speaking of his love for his disciples, “Greater love has no one than this, to lay down one’s life for one’s friends.” (John 15:13)

Bringing good out of such profound evil highlights the wisdom of God. Human beings acted wickedly in seizing Jesus and killing him. But God overruled in that to bring about something truly amazing. Jesus was “delivered up because of our offenses, and was raised because of our justification.” (Romans 4:25) In God’s unsearchable wisdom, the death of Jesus brought salvation.

The outcome of Jesus’ death was a victory and a blessing there was no other way to secure. As Peter said: “For Christ also suffered once for sins, the just for the unjust, that he might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh but made alive by the Spirit.” (1 Peter 3:18). When Jesus embraced death on the cross, it opened the way for him to bring us back to God. That is certainly something to give thanks for!

Rev. Ruben Zartman has been the pastor at Ebenezer Reformed Church in Shafter since 2017.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: YOU ARE IN DEFAULT UNDER A DEED OF TRUST, DATED 9/5/2003. UNLESS YOU TAKE ACTION TO PROTECT YOUR PROPERTY, IT MAY BE SOLD AT A PUBLIC SALE. IF YOU NEED AN EXPLANATION OF THE NATURE OF THE PROCEEDING AGAINST YOU, YOU SHOULD CONTACT A LAWYER. On 5/6/2022 at 10:00 AM, CLEAR RECON CORP, as duly appointed trustee under and pursuant to Deed of Trust recorded 9/12/2003 as Instrument No. 0203193682 of Official Records in the office of the County Recorder of Kern County, State of CALIFORNIA executed by: JOY J. ROBERTS, A WIDOW WILL SELL AT PUBLIC AUCTION TO HIGHEST BIDDER FOR CASH, CASHIER’S CHECK DRAWN ON A STATE OR NATIONAL BANK, A CHECK DRAWN BY A STATE OR FEDERAL CREDIT UNION, OR A CHECK DRAWN BY A STATE OR FEDERAL SAVINGS AND LOAN ASSOCIATION, SAVINGS ASSOCIATION, OR SAVINGS BANK SPECIFIED IN SECTION 5102 OF THE FINANCIAL CODE AND AUTHORIZED TO DO BUSINESS IN THIS STATE; AT THE FRONT ENTRANCE TO THE CITY HALL, 1501 TRUXTUN AVENUE, BAKERSFIELD, CA 93301 all right, title and interest conveyed to and now held by it under said Deed of Trust in the property situated in said County and State described as: MORE ACCURATELY DESCRIBED IN SAID DEED OF TRUST. The street address and other common designation, if any, of the real property described above is purported to be: 1502 2ND STREET, WASCO, CA 93280 The undersigned Trustee disclaims any liability for any inaccuracy of the street address and other common designation, if any, shown herein. Said sale will be held, but without covenant or warranty, possession, condition, or encumbrances, including fees, charges and expenses of the Trustee and of the trusts created by said Deed of Trust, to pay the remaining principal sums of the note(s) secured by said Deeds of Trust. The total amount of the unpaid balance of the obligation secured by the property to be sold and reasonable estimated costs, expenses and advances at the time of the initial publication of the Notice of Sale is: $47,687.87 If the Trustee is unable to convey title for any reason, the successful bidder’s sole and

exclusive remedy shall be the return of monies paid to the Trustee, and the successful bidder shall have no further recourse. The beneficiary under said Deed of Trust heretofore executed and delivered to the undersigned a written Declaration of Default and Demand for Sale, and a written Notice of Default and Election to Sell. The undersigned or its predecessor caused said Notice of Default and Election to Sell to be recorded in the county where the real property is located. NOTICE TO POTENTIAL BIDDERS: If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder’s office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call (844) 477-7869 or visit this Internet Web site WWW.STOXPOST-ING.COM, using the file number assigned to this case 099103-CA. Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the Internet Web site. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale. NOTICE TO TENANT: Effective January 1, 2021, you may have a right to purchase this property after the trustee auction pursuant to Section 2924m of the California Civil Code. If you are an “eligible tenant buyer,” you can purchase the property if you match the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. If you are an “eligible bidder,” you may be able to purchase the property if you exceed the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. There are three steps to exercising this right of purchase. First, 48 hours after the date of the trustee sale, you can call (855) 313-3319, or visit this internet website www.clearreconcorp.com, using the file number assigned to this case 099103-CA to find the date on which the trustee’s sale was held, the amount of the last and highest bid, and the address of the trustee. Second, you must send a written notice of intent to place a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 15 days after the trustee’s sale. Third, you must submit a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 45 days after the trustee’s sale. If you think you may qualify as an “eligible tenant buyer” or “eligible bidder,” you should consider contacting an attorney or appropriate real estate professional immediately for advice regarding this potential right to purchase. OBITUARIES

Manuel Valdovinos 1946 – 2022

With deep sadness, we announce our beloved protector and patriarch Manuel Valdovinos' passing on April 5, 2022. In the quiet of the early morning, he met his last breath forward, surrounded by his children and grandchildren as he so desired.

At age 76, he was preceded in death by a granddaughter and survived by his 10 children, 30 grandchildren, and nine great-grandchildren. He enjoyed sharing his abundance of love and smiles paired with music, good food and wine.

He attended a military academy and was a master mechanic and electrician for 51 years. Forty years ago, he hand-selected Shafter to lay his roots and remained here throughout his final days. In our small town and close-knit community, his family grew and flourished. Manuel opened a small automobile shop and passed on his joy of working on vehicles to his sons.

An avid reader with a passion for math, he stressed our education and encouraged a lifelong dedication to learning. Spending his final days at home, under the calm shade of his favorite tree, we will miss being able to stop by and share the ups and downs of life with our Papa.

Manuel was devoted to the word of our Lord and savored reading and sharing the Holy Bible. He cherished the simplicity of his day-to-day living, accepted his struggles with the "Never, never give up to anything!" motto, and peacefully anticipated the day his Papa God in heaven would take him home.

The legacy and love of Manuel Valdovinos will continue to grow and spread forward through his multitude of children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Those wishing to pay tribute or support the family can send flowers/contributions through Peter's Funeral Home of Shafter, where his services are arranged for this upcoming week.

Virginia Dale Ridge "Jinnie"

June 13, 1957 –
March 1, 2022

Jinnie was an extremely loving, caring aunt, dog owner and friend. She left this world suddenly on March 1, 2022. She was born to Dallas and Elizabeth "Micky" Ridge on June 13, 1957. Jinnie had three sisters, Cindy, Becky and Angie, and a brother, Ricky.

After deciding to quit school, Jinnie chased her dreams and went to work for Chevron for over 5 years. She also learned to drive an 18-wheeler and worked in Abernathy's Scrap Yard in Shafter.

Believe it or not, Jinnie also went to clown school because she loved making kids laugh – or was it because she just liked clowning around so much?

Jinnie was a big New England Patriots fan and overall football lover with a special love for Tom Brady she would call him her boyfriend during a game.

Jinnie struggled with addiction for a good part of her life. After coming into recovery and the Terra Lynn House, she volunteered at many 12-step meetings, holding many service commitments and serving on the convention committee, being of service to the Narcotics Anonymous fellowship every chance she got.

She was always the Easter Bunny at the NA Easter Egg Hunt at Beach Park in Bakersfield. She was also a longtime member of Valley Bible Fellowship, where she found her peace in Jesus. Jinnie was a big fan of Pastor Ron and often went on and on about his sermons on Sunday.

Rak-Chazak-Amats my friend.

Jinnie's favorite Bible verse was Proverbs 3:5-6 Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding. In all your ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct your paths.

Jinnie loved spending time in her yard working on her plants with her dogs

Bullet, Tank, and her beloved Suzette. Jinnie loved all dogs. She would pull over on the freeway to pick up a stray dog. Jinnie always gave money to homeless people if they had a dog; she often had extra cans of dog food in her trunk for a homeless dog owner. Jinnie loved listening to the Beatles and riding her Harley. She was a skilled rider and filled her home with Harley memorabilia.

Jinnie is survived by nephews Terry, Jeff, Chris and Kelly Clayton; niece Anita Rojas; and great nephews Tyler, Jonah and Colton, who all knew her as Aunt GiGi. She leaves special friends Teresa Toos Ragsdale, Julie Etheredge, Diana White, her caregiver Sylvia Cooper, and longtime sisters in recovery Lynette, Kendall, Sherry and LaLa.

Generals have rough outings against rivals

JAMIE STEWART
The Shafter Press

The Shafter Generals softball and baseball teams had rough outings on Tuesday, both squads losing to rivals Wasco, 5-2 and 8-1 respectively.

The Lady Generals took a 3-1 league record into the contest, with their only loss to Chavez High School. Shafter could not get their bats going, and fell into a hole early.

Nicole Chavez connects for a hit.

SHAFTER

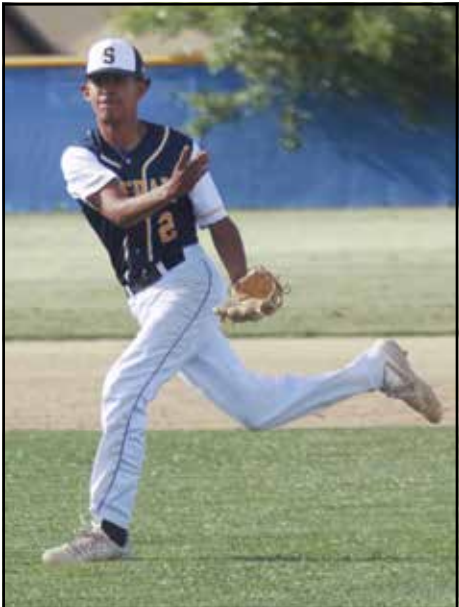

Wasco scored one run in the first inning, getting a hit off of Shafter's top pitcher, Serenity Angulo. The Tigers added a second run in the fourth inning. Wasco broke it open in the sixth inning, scoring 3 more runs, giving them a 5-0 lead.

The Lady Generals got two of the runs back, closing the gap to 5-2, but couldn't get any closer. Madison Ortiz hit a triple for the Lady Generals, getting an RBI, with Angulo getting the other RBI for Shafter.

Angulo ended the game with 7 strikeouts and allowed 6 hits for the game. But, the hits were at opportune times, and the Tigers batted well with runners in scoring position. Shafter hit the ball hard a few times, but it seemed to go right at a Wasco fielder, or the fielders for the Tigers made outstanding plays to prevent any offense for the Lady Generals.

Shafter is ranked number 3 in the Central Section Division V, with their opponents in last year's Valley Championship game, Highland High, holding the number one spot.

Shafter will next play Chavez at home on Thursday afternoon and will go to Taft to take on the Wildcats on Tuesday. Shafter pulled out a 6-5 nailbiter against Taft in their previous meeting.

Matteo Martinez makes a play in the field.

The Shafter High baseball team played it close with the Tigers for five innings, with the visitors breaking the game open in the 6th inning with 6 runs, giving them an 8-0 lead. The Generals managed one run, but Angulo lets it fly for a strike.

The loss keeps the Generals winless in the South Sequoia League, with the Generals looking for their first league win on Thursday against Chavez High. They will then go to Taft to play the Wildcats.

All of the games begin at 4 p.m.

Tigers beat Generals 8-1

MARCO ESPINOZA
For the Wasco Tribune

The Wasco Tigers beat the Shafter Generals 8-1 in an explosive match Tuesday afternoon.

An outcome which was not unexpected if you take a look at the Tiger's previous matches this season. With an overall record of 13-6, and an inter-league record of 4-2, the odds were on Wasco's side. The Generals, on the other hand, are 8-9 overall Shafter's Luke Rodriguez pitches to the Tigers' Sebastian Aguilar, with Javier Hinojosa behind the plate Tuesday afternoon.

and are completely void of a win so far in league play at 0 - 5.

The varsity team has already beaten out some of the strongest teams the region has to offer. So far this year, they've taken down Morro Bay, Corcoran, Exeter, Independence, Cesar Chavez, Golden Valley, North, McFarland, Arvin and Lindsay. They have only lost to Taft, Central Valley Christian, Kennedy, Garces, and Mission Oak so far.

"These boys came out and they played hard today," said Wasco head coach Jeffery Wedell, who is in his 10th year of heading the Wasco High baseball program. "...We got an unbelievable outing from Colin..." Colin being Colin Dickson. Colin had the crowd roaring on multiple different occasions, definitely coming out as a favorite in the eyes of spectators.

"[I].can't say enough about the effort we put out facing a guy like Luke [Rodriguez] that throws ninety-plus..." Luke is a standout player from Shafter, another crowd favorite and a very proficient player.

Currently, Luke has a fielding percentage of .943, a batting average of .483, and an on-base percentage of .575. Even compared to his fellow teammates, Luke's stats are extraordinary, "We were patient, we made him pitch and we got the dub," Coach Dickson said.

The Tigers face off against McFarland Thursday, April 21. It will be the second time this year the Tigers have gone against McFarland Thursday, April 21. It will be the second time this year the Tigers have gone against the Titans. Wasco came out victorious the first time around, shutting out McFarland 19-0.

The Shafter Press and Wasco Tribune office

Will be open longer hours beginning April 21st.

New hours will be M-F 9am-4pm (open during lunch)
