Council discusses capital improvements

JAMIE STEWART The Shafter Press

The City of Shafter plans to spend about $27 million for capital improvements in the next next year.

The City Council discussed the Capital Improvement Program and fleet equipment requests for 2022-23 at their meeting Tuesday night. According to Public Works Director Michael James, the amount of monies projected to be used for capital improvement projects is about $27 million. Fifty-four percent of this total is projected to be used for streets and road projects, with about 29% flagged for water projects.

SHAFTER

These projects include Well 21, to serve the Gossamer Grove area, which would get the area off the North Kern Water District system. This is important because of the limit set by the Nort of the River District for Gossamer Grove.

Within the Streets and Roads Division, there are several projects underway and expected to be started this fiscal year. One is to give Santa Fe Way a sufficient shoulder.

Another project is the Highway 43 roundabout. A environmental study has been ordered and will be completed this year. James noted that the building of the roundabout will be done by Caltrans.

James said that there have been several questions from residents about the status of the improvement projects underway in the Local artist to exhibit new artwork

JAMIE STEWART

The Shafter Press

Shafter has an artist in town that has been creating works of art and history for years, creating works that capture the rich history of the city. Charlotte White, who has been painting for over 50 years, is preparing a new exhibit for Shafter's Tin Cup, with paintings of local life, including a painting of the Green Hotel, Shafter's historic landmark.

White has had a display of three paintings at Tin Cup with a picture of local almond groves, as well as a landscape. White said that it was time to switch out the pieces, giving people the chance to see a different collection.

White began painting over 50 years ago, realizing that she had a knack for capturing scenery, and people at work, giving the pieces life with strokes of the brush. White began teaching locally, and has continued to teach to this day at the > Bakersfield Art Institute, in downtown Bakersfield, and will have a large exhibit at its gallery in October. White is naming the collection "History of Bakersfield" and will include people at work, as well as several city landmarks captured in a variety of mediums. White uses oils, watercolors, acrylic, and she also Recently, White was sitting in front of the Shafter Depot Museum, painting the front of the building, using her paintbrushes, as well as her trusty compass that she uses for straighter lines. "I am painting here at the museum today, and tomorrow I am going to keep working on a piece that will be included in the October show. I am painting the historic Luigi's restaurant. I set up my cones around me and get to work," White

She has works displayed all around Shafter, including at City Hall and inside several businesses. You can tell her work by their local flavor, capturing scenes of Shafter throughout the years. She also had several of her works depicted in a blanket that was created for Shafter's Centennial Celebration a few years ago, now on display at City Hall.

White said that a local school she had been teaching at outsourced her position, so she is going to use that free time to put more time into her painting, as well as maybe do some traveling.

SHS Drama brings broadway hit to Shafter

JAMIE STEWART

The Shafter Press The Shafter High Drama Department put on their production of the Broadway hit, "The Drowsy Chaperone," on Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights at the Fred Starrh Performing Arts Center on the campus of Shafter High.

Directed by advisor Hal Friedman, the ensemble presented the parody of 1920s American musicals to crowds of over 100 each night.

The gangsters, played by Andrew Magana and Jonathan Valenzuela, are in disguise as pastry chefs.

SHAFTER

The play tells the story of a couple getting ready to get married, accompanied by his best man, the maid of honor, who is the title character of the production, and a host of odd characters.

David Bloemhof IV played the groom, Robert Martin, and the bride-to-be was portrayed by Emily McGuire. Both actors are veterans of the stage, performing in previous productions at Shafter High, as well as the Shafter Childrens Theater and Young Adult Theater. Bloemhof had a meaty role in the Young Adults Theater's production of "Newsies." McGuire played Janet Vandergraff, a rising star who is willing to cut short her career to become a bride.

Another veteran of the local theater scene, Laura Neufeld, played the Drowsy Chaperone. Neufeld entertained the crowd with her singing chops and her hilarious portrayal of the title character. "The Chaperone was so funny!" said Misty Umpress, who was there with her parents. "Everybody was great, and the play was a lot of fun."

In the B plot of the production, the director of the Follies, starring McGuire, was being forced to prevent the wedding from taking place, preserving the future of the Follies.

The director is getting pressure from a couple of bumbling gangsters, disguised as pastry chefs, threatening to treat the director to an unpleasant recipe for pain. Narrated by Matthew Penner, who portrays a musical fan, the play has everything in it – heroes, heroines, villains and even a latin lover who tries to woo the bride-to-be, only to set his sights on the maid of honor by mistake.

Friedman said that the production was a fun one to direct, letting the students express their acting chops and learn to dance and sing, for those who may not have had much experience before the production began.

For a group of students who for the most part had little acting and singing experience, the production was a hit, garnering applause and praise throughout its run.

"I think that the play was fantastic. Everyone was so funny. I didn't know that Shafter had so many talented kids in it. It is just amazing watching a play like this from kids, who aren't show biz veterans," said Raul Perez, who was enjoying the play with his sister and niece. "I can't wait until their next play."

Desiree Arreola, who played Director Feldzieg, and Ivan Figueroa, who was Adolpho.

Workshop addresses mental health

VERONICA JACUINDE

Wasco Tribune

Community Health Initiative of Dignity Health and St. John the Evangelist Catholic Church will partner to presen, a free mental health workshop will be held on Sunday, May 22. The goal will be to raise awareness and educate the public to combat stigma.

It is the third workshop that has taken place in Wasco in the last year. In the past, almost 100 people have attended.

"Many of those who have participated expressed their gratitude because they learned information about mental health issues, their symptoms, and why they or a family member may be suffering from them," said organizer Mayor Gilberto Rey-

The workshop will be led in Spanish to serve Wasco's high Latino population bet-

"There is such a lack of education and information in the Hispanic community that it is important we reach this demographic in their native language," said workshop facilitator Maria de Los Angeles Bucio.

Bucio has worked in mental health for over 15 years and is certified by NAMI (National Alliance on Mental Health) to lead support groups. She is a community health worker and an emotional therapist that embarked on this career after her son was diagnosed with Schizophrenia.

"I know what it feels like to be lost and scared, not knowing how to access resources, get help, or even know where to begin."

The theme of this workshop will be exploring the impact of emotions on your mental health. The event will be interactive, and there to teach coping skills and how to better deal with your emotions in a positive way. It will share how negative and repressed emotions can be detrimental to your physical and mental well-being. Participants will

> "Most people don't know how to deal with or constructively express their emotions," said Bucio.

> > An important message will be how critical it is to care of your mental health and treat it just like any other disease, like diabetes, for example.

"It is a condition that can be managed given the right information, treatment and support."

Unfortunately, there is much stigma when it comes to mental health.

"The workshop is one more in a series that aims to provide our residents suffering from this common ailment a forum to talk about a subject often viewed with much stigma and give them the aid they

"To combat stigma, we need education so people can feel more comfortable speaking about mental health and more willing to ask for assistance," said Bucio.

"We aim to shed light on the issue and raise awareness to save lives and enable those who live with a condition to have a happy and productive life despite this."

Attendees will learn about their available resources, even if they don't have health insurance.

"We will connect them with organizations that can assist them with that and who to go to for guidance."

Soon there will be workshops in English.

"In the near future, I will also collaborate with other organizations to provide the mental health workshops in English," said Mayor Reyna. "It is my intention for the Wasco Community to become healthier."

PET OF THE WEEK Dallas needs a loving home

Dallas came into the Wasco Animal Shelter as a stray. The female wirehaired terrier mix is about 3 years old. She is great with staff and other dogs, but has only been tested with large dogs. At the time, it is unknown if Dallas is house/ crate trained. Dogs are not tested with children and cats; her behavior towards cats and children is unknown. Dallas will be available for adoption on May 19.

Everyone is welcome to adopt from our facility, and we like to give everyone the same opportunity. Adopters can be from out of town and/or local. We do not place holds for adoptions. Adopters are responsible for transportation. It is a first-come, first-serve basis beginning at 8 a.m. on the date they are available. You are more than welcome to call

"I am here mostly because of her. It was her first time at the dance, and I was excited to see her happy, knowing that this was her night," said Jose Salas of his 9-year-old daughter, Cataleya.

Daddys and daughters worked hard to look stylish for the party.

"Liana and I put a lot of effort into coordinating our outfits. She wanted everything to be perfect," said Aldo Ramirez.

Francisco Armenta bought his 9-yearold daughter, Mia, a corsage to compliment her dress.

"I wanted her to feel beautiful," said Armenta.

The night was meant to make the girls feel like royalty.

"Today, my daughter is a princess. I have two daughters, and I am trying to give them the example that they should be treated like a queen," said Tony Ayala of his daughters, 6-year-old Eliana and 9-year-old Emmily.

"My daughter, Joy, is wearing a crown and a gown tonight because she is my princess," said Pedro Astorga.

Undefeated Lady Tigers in state championships

MARCO ESPINOZA

For the Wasco Tribune

The varsity Lady Tigers continue to dominate the opposition this season as they enter the CIF playoffs with a 22-game win

Only dropping three games this season out of 25, they go undefeated in league play, going 12-0 as they prepared to go against Kerman (14-11) for the second time on Wednesday, May 17. This makes the Wasco Tigers first place in the Central Section South Sequoia League, placing them above schools such as Taft, Shafter, Chavez, Arvin, McFarland and Kennedy.

Lady Tiger supremacy cannot be understated. So far, 11 out of 22 wins have been complete shutouts. This season, the Tigers have shut out the likes of Bakersfield Christian 1-0, Kerman 1-0, Barstow 3-0, Tehachapi 9-0, McFarland 13-0 and Arvin 15-0. Schools such as Ridgeview, Mira Monte and Kennedy were shut out twice by the Lady Tigers this season. Ridgeview lost 14-0 the first time and 11-0 the second time. Mira Monte lost 11-0 the first time, 15-0 the second time. Kenedy lost 13-0 the first time, 10-0 the second time.

When asked earlier this year about the team's expectations, Softball Head Coach Sonia Wedel said, "We are looking to be more competitive than we've been in the last 3-4 years and produce more wins. Softball has expanded quite a bit in the last 10 years, and overall high school teams are stronger and the competition is tougher. We can't take any team or game

"It shows that our students are getting the same, if not better, education than a comprehensive high school."

It was a team effort.

"The staff, students, parents, and community enable us to bring our best foot forward in education. It has been a challenging two years because of the pandemic. However, with all of their support, we have not only been able to overcome this, but we have also experienced tremendous success."

The staff was overjoyed.

The passengers of the Amtrak train waited at the cemetery before buses came to pick them up to continue their trip.

The driver of the pickup truck was declared dead at the scene. Three of the passengers were treated for minor injuries, California Highway Patrol officials said..

Highway 43 was closed for several hours while the scene was cleared and an investigation begun. It is unclear the cause of the accident. The deceased driver of the pickup hwas unidentified Wednesday night.

Factoring in eternity

REV. RUBEN ZARTMAN Ebenezer Reformed Church, Shafter

The Bible is very blunt about the fact that life in this world is quite difficult. Genesis explains that Adam and Eve, by their rebellion against God brought death into the world and the necessity of hardship (Genesis 3:8–24). The book of Job illustrates that life is harsh through the story of a man, who lost everything. The reality that life is short and full of frustration is the background for everything Ecclesiastes says. And in the New Testament, the Apostle Paul takes the hardships of life for granted when he says, "For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, is working for us a far more exceeding and eternal

OBITUARIES

Lannis Joseph Cates was born Nov. 20, 1927, in Quinton, Okla., to Lela Mae (McKee) and Curtbirth Cornelius (Slim) Cates. He passed away peacefully on May 7, 2022, into the arms of Jesus. He joined his beloved wife of 73 years, Judy Faye. Lannis spent his first 16 vears in Oklahoma. Times were tough, and in the summer of 1943 the family moved to Shafter. He started at Shafter High School and graduated in January of 1946. Lannis and Judy met at Shafter High and married in September of 1947. They lived the remainder of their lives in the Shafter and Bakersfield area.

Lannis had a strong work ethic that began at a man of high integrity; his word was his bond. Lannis was a math whiz and could build or fix anything. Because of these abilities, he held various occupations and provided well for his family. This incredible drive would continue even into his 90s! Lannis and Judy started their family in 1950, when their daughter, Patricia, was born. They moved to Shafter in 1955 where their son, Alan, was born. Lannis was very involved with his family. They attended church regularly and he made sure that God was a part of their lives. Lannis was a coach for his wife's, daughter's and son's ball teams and won several championships. He was also a scoutmaster, and a positive role model for many. Lannis and Judy's grandchildren and great grandchildren were a huge part of their lives. From ball games, 4-H projects, volunteering at school, helping with homework, they always made time to be at any and all events and "loved each of them a whole world full." Lannis's grandfather was a Mason, and he always wanted to be one. In 1963 he joined the Masonic Lodge and has been an active member for 59 years. He became a member of the Scottish Rite and was honored being made a 33rd degree. He also joined the Shriners because he admired the work the Shriner Hospitals do for crippled children. Over the years Lannis achieved many titles and volunteered wherever he was needed. Through these organizations he and Judy made many friends and enjoyed traveling all over the United States and Lannis leaves behind, daughter Patricia Ann and husband Howard Funk, his son Alan Cates and wife Lori, his granddaughters Jamie (Funk) Gonzales and Corey, Carly (Cates) Maxwell and Cody, Mallory (Cates) Reese and Justin, and grandson Ryan Funk and Adriana. Papa also leaves behind eight great grandchildren, Quartnie, Codey, Cage, Miller, Campbell, Slade, Fletcher and Aurora, and many great grand puppies.

Lannis was preceded in death by his loving wife, Judy Faye (Marchman) Cates, his parents, Lela Mae and C.C. Cates, his sister, Elmetia (Cates) Rose, and brothers, Wendell and Oliver. He leaves behind his brother, Billy Cates.

A viewing will be held at Peters Funeral Home in Shafter on Thursday, May 19, from 4 to 8 p.m. A Masonic Tribute service will be held Friday, May 20, at 10 a.m., also at Peters Funeral Home. A graveside memorial service will be held at Shafter Memorial Park on Friday, May 20, at

We thank the staff of Carrington of Shafter and Hoffman Hospice for the care given to Lannis these last 4 years. In lieu of flowers, please make donations to Shriners Hospitals for Children at shrinershospitalsforchildren.org.

Herbert E. Schmidt Nov. 9, 1928 -April 18, 2022

Herbert E Schmidt, 93, passed away April 18. He was born Nov 9, 1928, in Lincoln, Neb., to John and Lydia (Rahrig) Schmidt. He graduated from Lemoore High School in Lemoore in 1946. He married Norma Jean Waite in December of 1953. He was proud to serve his country in the Air Force in Korea. After his service, he worked at Pacific Telephone, from which he re-

He was a good father. He was involved in his children's activities and loved all five of his children. He was a Boy Scout troop leader and taught his children to "Be Prepared."

After retirement, he continued to work for various individuals and businesses in the Wasco area installing and repairing phone connections. In Wasco, he was known as "the phone man." He also enjoyed taking his children and grandchildren fishing and watching their sporting

He was plagued later in life with Parkinson's and lived the last months of his life in Carrington of Shafter, where the nurses and staff loved him and took good care of him. Surviving family members include his wife of 68 years, Norma Jean Waite Schmidt. He also leaves four daughters and a son: Rebecca (Nate) Johnson of Bakersfield, Eric (Lynn) Schmidt of Eagan, Minn., Elizabeth Jones of Redding, Jennifer (Robbie) Kuhn of Courtland, Miss., and Esther (Ron) Melendrez of Big Timber, Mont.; 14 grandchildren; and 25 great grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his parents and his brothers, Lee Schmidt and Howard Schmidt. His memorial service with military honors was held on May 5 at Bakersfield National Cemetery, Arvin, We are grateful for his life, his example and his love, but God's promises. The family wishes to thank Carrington of Shafter and Hospice for the exceptional care Herb received. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Westside Church of Christ in Bakersfield.
