Shooting victim in critical condition

An unidentified man found in a Birch Street alley Monday was in critical condition at a hospital two days later.

On Monday at approximately 12:14

p.m., sheriff's deputies discovered an adult male victim who had been shot in the alley of the 1100 block of Birch Avenue.

According to the sheriff's office, the victim was in critical condition.

"The victim was airlifted to Kern Medical Center in Bakersfield," Sergeant Peter Martinez said. "There is no suspect or a description of a suspect available at this time."

The investigation is continuing, according to Martinez.

(calculations) of each job.

Martinez was born in Jalisco, Mexico, and arrived in Delano in 1979. He is a former field worker who has been able to achieve the American dream of owning his own business.

After a long day working in the fields, Martinez would come home and immediately head to their garage, where he would work on woodworking projects, Junior says.

"My father would work in the fields all day," Junior said. "Then, he would come home and go to the garage, where he would work on wood projects."

Even though Junior was born in Delano, he was raised in Wasco and attended all Wasco schools. He enjoys running into old friends while he works on jobs.

Junior and his wife have settled in Wasco, too.

"I have my own home in Wasco," he said. "And I just got married in April. We haven't done any remodeling yet, but maybe in the future. My dad remodeled his kitchen himself, and it took him several years."

"We self-advertise," Junior added. "We have customers from all over, such as Santa Monica and even an old customer from Wasco who now lives in Oklahoma. When he is in town, he will come see what we have."

Junior stated that the business focus is on custom cabinet work. Several pieces of their work were on display inside the shop. "We use a store-bought base coat, then we mix our own colors for stain."

A chest of drawers frame was waiting to be finished as the completed drawers were drying a few feet away, stained a medium brown with a hint of red.

The size of the shop is deceiving because it is broken up into several different sections. The main section is usually what the customer sees when they walk into the building – a room full of raw material, thus the smell of newly cut wood and sawdust. In the back is a room, where stain is mixed to create their own unique colors, and still another section utilized for projects ready to load onto their trailer.

Father, son and mother, Irma Martinez, all get to know their customers well. All three are involved in all the projects taken in until completion.

Junior stated that there is very little wasted wood. "We use everything we have," he said. In fact, on a recent tour the only small piece of visible waste was a narrow piece of wood about eight inches long.

In addition, "We give away free sawdust to anyone who wants it," Junior said.

The family runs a clean, friendly shop, and they eager to engage in friendly conversation as customers enter.

"We get to know everybody's story," Junior said. "People from the fields come into the shop to visit or to do business."

Martinez Kitchen Cabinets is located at 935 Poso Dr.; they can be reached at 661-342-2036 or 661-758-3506.

March.

The director of the authority, Steve Pelz, explained by telephone Wednesday morning: "This would not be like a shelter for the homeless. The residents would be by invitation only and the women will be assisted in finding jobs and finding housing in the area from where they originally came."

It was clear from the comments made by both councilmembers and the public that there was little or no support for the plan from locals.

Ortiz-Hernandez told the councilmembers he was opposed to the idea because he had not been directly informed of. He told the councilmembers that to put a homeless shelter in this part of the county didn't make sense because during the state's 'homeless count' recently completed, there were only 15 homeless people documented in the Wasco and Shafter area.

"A decision should be made this week by the county," Ortiz-Hernandez said. "We need more information before we proceed on this."

"The city was a bit blindsided," Mayor Alex Garcia said.

Resident Paul Hussy said that he has been a Wasco resident for 66 years and had several questions to ask the county. "Will this just be single women? Who is going to enforce this?," he said. "Don't let people 'rest' on what they say because once they get their foot in the door, what then?"

Hussy also questioned who would pay for this idea.

Resident David Ward said that he opposed this idea of moving the homeless out of Bakersfield to Wasco. "We only have 15 homeless," he noted, referring to the last count.

Ward urged the city council to take legal action. "If we don't do something legally, get an injunction to stop them, they will do what they want."

Ward also stated that accepting this idea would change the area, and it would be hard to enforce that only unattached women would reside there.

"Crime will go up and property values would go down," Ward added.

Seven-year resident Harold Gibson asked if Los Angeles would be bringing up more people to Wasco. He has a major issue with this idea.

"The homeless are drug addicts," Councilmember Gilberto Reyna said. "When I rode with an officer, he had the homeless empty their pockets and they found drugs. This will affect us deeply. I think we should take legal action ... and move in that direction."

Mayor Pro Temp Tilio Cortez added, "Shafter and Wasco are on the same page. This will affect both communities."

Cortez added that the city needs to spend some money and get legal action started.

"Los Angeles is sending their homeless to Kern County," Councilmember Danny Espitia said. "They are given a voucher, put on Amtrak and sent to Kern County."

Espitia also felt this would have an impact on police services and medical services, "I don't like what they are trying to shove down our throats."

Councilmember John Pallares stated that his first concern was with the children involved.

The councilmembers unanimously agreed to direct the city manager to write a letter to the county advising them of the city's position on the idea and move forward with legal options that are available. The council agreed that just a letter wouldn't have any effect on the outcome, that legal action needs to occur.

Garcia stated that he didn't understand the intent behind the idea of a housing plan. "We have a supervisor who should look out for us, and that is not happening." The area is represented by Supervisor David Couch.

In other council business, Sergeant Peter Martinez shared a video on home surveillance systems that the department wants residents to register with the sheriff's office for, because "video surveillance is helpful in catching criminals," Martinez said.

He stated that the officers have been able to solve several crimes due to video surveillance equipment at crime scenes. Registration information was passed out to each audience member. Anyone wishing to register their video surveillance equipment with the Wasco substation may do so by calling 758-758-7266 and asking for Sergeant Martinez.

Martinez added that there will be a "Coffee with a Cop" Wednesday morning at Starbucks from 9-10 a.m.

FOCUS ON LOCAL BUSINESS

Chamber helping Shafter grow

Variety of services — fireworks show, too

JAMIE STEWART
The Shafter Press

The City of Shafter continues to grow as it keeps strengthening one of the most financially stable cities in Kern County, if not the state of California.

Shafter has a valuable weapon in its arsenal when it comes to attracting new businesses, as well as growing its core city. The Shafter Chamber of Commerce is an integral part of the makeup of the city, helping local businesses in many ways.

If you ask the average resident what the Shafter Chamber of Commerce is, they will probably tell you that they are the people that put on the annual fireworks show. Well, the chamber does put on the event, which has grown into one of the biggest shows in Kern County, attracting a large crowd from Shafter, Wasco, Bakersfield, and the surrounding areas. Zermeno said, "A lot of the Shafter residents are watching the show from their homes in their front yards, or at the parks. The majority of the people we get inside the stadium at the event are people from Bakersfield and other cities."

Rachel Zermeno, the chamber director, said that the Chamber of Commerce is so much more than the group that puts on the fireworks show. "We are here to help our local businesses any way we can, including advertising, assisting with special events and including them on our community calendar."

Zermeno also said that for new businesses, the chamber offers a variety of memberships and option. "We have different levels of membership, and we offer so many tools that can help a new or existing business."

There are 76 members of the Shafter Chamber, growing substantially in the past few years.

In the beginning – 1931, to be exact – the Shafter Business Men's dents numbered fewer than 1,200. In 1946, the Men's Association changed its name to "Shafter Chamber of Commerce."

Over the course of history, the chamber has provided community leadership as a generous contributor to civic activities that celebrate the vibrant agriculture history of Shafter, such as the Shafter Potato and Cotton Festivals, Kern County Fair exhibit, Harvest Jamboree, and of course, the annual fireworks show. Another event that is on the Chamber's annual calendar is the Shafter Chamber of Commerce and Annual Community Service Awards.

The banquet recognizes a variety of Shafter individuals and businesses who have made an impact in the city and is one of the reasons Shafter keeps growing their excellent reputation. They moved the venue for the banquet this last year to the Ford Theater, from the Veterans Hall.

"It was a great move, with the change of venue really being a popular one," said Zermeno.

"We also offered different levels of sponsorship for the event, which was a first for the event. This was so successful that we had a surplus of funds that we used to create seven scholarships that we were able to give to Shafter students."

Zermeno said that they will continue the tradition and will hopefully have enough money this year to again give scholarships to deserving students.

If a new business comes to Shafter, Zermeno said that the chamber's job is to contact the business and let them know what the chamber is and how they can help their business grow and thrive in the city of Shafter.

A little-known fact is that you do not need to own a business to be a part of the group. "We welcome businesses and individuals who would like to be involved in the community and help the city of Shafter thrive and celebrate its success," Zermeno said.

A basic membership is only $50 for an individual and $100 for a business. For this, they receive a membership decal, a listing on the chamber's website, a newsletter listing, inclusion in the Newcomers Directory and Community Calendar advertising.

There are also higher levels of membership, including Facebook advertising, Jobs Corner advertising, Fourth of July recognition and Awards Banquet sponsorships.

For more information on the chamber, contact Zermeno at 661-746-2600, or shafter-chamber@shafter.com.

The Chamber hosts the annual Shafter Chamber of Commerce Community Service Awards each year.

Association was incorporated. The Men's Association operated for over six years before the city incorporated in 1938, when the resident numbered fewer than 1,200. In 1946, the Men's Association changed its name to "Shafter Chamber of Commerce."

Wasco wins battle of Tigers

MATTHEW ROBLEDO
For the Wasco Tribune

Last Friday night The Wasco Tigers win the Battle of the Tigers, 35-7. the battle of the Tigers occurred at Delano High as Wasco traveled for their last nonleague game.

The game kicked off with strong defensive play on both sides of the field, each trying to help their offense to strike first. The first touchdown went to Wasco, with an 11-yard burst from running back Christian Alvarez.

The following drive for Delano ended quickly, with an interception by Wasco Safety Andre Cordova. In the next quarter, Alvarez was running for a sweep and got his helmet completely yanked off by a Delano defender. He returned after being out for one play and scored yet another touchdown for Wasco.

On Wasco's next offensive drive, Rodrick Scott beat the Delano defenders to the edge for a 30-yard sprint to the end zone for another six points.

To kick off the second half, Wasco's defense made a huge interception by Julius Mazano. That led to a long drive down the field, finally to be punched in by Alejandro Prieto.

Delano found some spark with a couple of big plays that led them to the red zone. This only to be ended with another turnover by Wasco's defense, with a fumble in a handoff and Wasco's Misyn Lane coming up with the ball.

Wasco then closed out the game with a final touchdown by quarterback Jacob Villanueva.

The outstanding play of the game was by Rodrick Scott with a 30-yard touchdown run. Wasco's player of the game goes to Rodrick Scott for having 207 rushing yards. He had one rushing touchdown, and some big runs for Wasco.

Both Wasco's freshman and junior Varsity teams won their matches in Delano. The freshman took their victory 22-8 on Thursday, and the JV blew out Delano 54-0 on Friday.

The Tigers are back on the road this Friday against Robert F. Kennedy at 7.30 p.m. The junior varsity game kicks off at 5 p.m.

out with his friends, and we couldn't locate him." A compromise was made and the son was right back playing soccer.

In addition to the traveling soccer league founded by Raya, the Wasco Recreation and Parks Department also offers coed soccer teams for 3-13 year olds. The registration cost is $45 for 3-6 year olds and $55 for 7-13 year olds. This cost includes a shirt and socks for each player. The Recreation and Parks Department ment soccer league began Sept. 28 and will continue through November.

Raya stated that the coaches are all volunteers. Raya coaches the under 8 team, Alfonso Barrera coaches the under 12 team, Luis Casablanca coaches the under 13 team, and Felipe and Jorge Torres also help coach the teams.

"I like soccer for kids because it helps with discipline problems, weight issues and motivation, keeps kids on the right track," Raya said.

Also, while speaking with several Sheriff's Activities League (SAL) girls during baseball season, each girl expressed that she was frustrated because there weren't any team sports such as baseball or soccer for girls 15 years and up.

Raya is passionate about his teams. He has also been able to recruit the volunteer coaches.

"The club was founded to promote the game of soccer and help kids learn and practice the game correctly," Raya said. "Most importantly, it was founded to guide these kids to be better people."

The next home game for the soccer team is Sunday, Oct. 13, at Teresa Burke beginning at 10 a.m.

Sept. 24, 2019

Veronic Priest left this world on Sept. 24, 2019 in Colorado Springs. She was born Sept. 18, 1920, in Delight, Ark., to Charles and Tilda Copeland.

She married Owen Priest on Feb. 19, 1939; he preceded her in death on Nov. 21, 2002. Verniece and Owen had three children, Charlene Deason, who preceded her in death on 2017; Michael Priest, who preceded her in death on 2016; and her daughter, Marcia Mata, and son-in-law, Florencio Mata, of Colorado Springs. She leaves five grandchildren, seven great-grandchildren and four great great-grandchildren, and many nieces and nephews.

Verniece loved people and was a beautiful Christian servant, worshipping at the Church of Christ in Wasco, where she resided for 59 years until moving close to her daughter and son-in-law. Her hands were seldom still, as she enjoyed painting, crocheting and gardening.

She worked at Biofirm in Wasco until her retirement. She was a remarkable woman, loved by so many family members and friends.

The family would like to thank Pikes Peak Hospice and Life Care Center of Colorado Springs for the excellent care they provided for her in her final weeks on this earth.

A private family service will be held on Oct. 9.

Please send condolences to the family and sign the family's guestbook at PetersFuneralHomes.com.

PASTOR'S CORNER

Wisdom is worth asking for

PASTOR FERNANDO SEGURA

James, the half-brother of Jesus, shared a bold statement that causes one to question whether he was in His right mind: "Count it all joy, brothers, when we face various trials" (James 1:2-3). Has life thrown more lemons at you when you try to do everything righteously? Perhaps you reconciled your relationship with Christ, and life only became more challenging. James shares some insight in how to go through trials in a divine manner. Ask God for wisdom (James 1:5). Wisdom is like the box to the puzzle, while all the puzzle pieces can be overwhelming, the image on the box assures you that something beautiful can come out of the scattered pieces. Sometimes your trials can seem like a mess, and your life can be in pieces. I have been there myself. You are not alone. It was God's wisdom that enabled me to move forward and not back. Brothers and sisters, heavenly wisdom enables us to understand and navigate through the trials that seem to startle us. I have discovered that the way we respond to trials tells of our spiritual maturity. How much have you grown since your last trial? It is through trials that God develops us, stretches us and that we have an opportunity to come even closer to Him—to get to know him like never before. Are you having a hard time these days? Ask God for his wisdom—ask for a lot of it! Fernando Segura is pastor of Canyon Hills Church

I have discovered that the way we respond to trials tells of our spiritual maturity. How much have you grown since your last trial?

MORTGAGE LENDER SERVICES, INC. as the duly appointed Trustee WILL SELL AT PUBLIC AUCTION TO THE HIGHEST BIDDER FOR CASH (payable at time of sale in lawful money of the United States, by cash, a cashier's check drawn by a state or national bank, a check drawn by a state or federal savings and loan association, savings association, or savings bank specified in section 5102 of the Financial Code and authorized to do business in this state) all right, title and interest conveyed to and now held by it under said Deed of Trust, described as follows: Trustor(s): ARTURO REYES and GRISELDA REYES Deed of Trust: recorded on 02/30/2004 as Document No. 1204323344 of official records in the Office of the Recorder of KERN COUNTY, California, Date of Trustee's Sale: 10/18/2019 at 10:00AM Trustee's Sale Location: On the front steps of the City Hall South building at 1501 Truxtun Ave, Bakersfield, CA 93301 The property situated in said County, California describing the land therein: AS MORE FULLY DESCRIBED IN SAID DEED OF TRUST The property heretofore described is being sold "as is". The street address and other common designation, if any, of the real property described above is purported to be: 604 CAMP AVENUE, SHAFTER, CA 93263. The undersigned Trustee disclaims any liability for any incorrectness of the street address and other common designation, if any, shown herein. The beneficiary under said Deed of Trust heretofore executed and delivered to the undersigned a written Declaration of Default and Demand for Sale, and a written Notice of Default and Election to Sell. The undersigned caused said Notice of Default and Election to Sell to be recorded in the county where the real property is located and more than three months have elapsed since such recordation. If the Trustee is unable to convey title for any reason, the successful bidder's sole and exclusive remedy shall be the return of monies paid to the Trustee, and the successful bidder shall have no further recourse. NOTICE TO POTENTIAL BIDDERS: If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call 916-939-0772 or visit this Internet Web site www.nationwidewebposting.com, using the file number assigned to this case 130178-11. Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the Internet Web site. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale. THE ESTIMATED OPENING BID AT THE TIME OF THE INITIAL SALE DATE WILL BE $102,898.00. THE ESTIMATED MARKET VALUE IS $180,000.00.
