Pay to vaccinate program continues

VERONICA JACUINDE
Wasco Tribune

United Against Covid-19, in partnership with the City of Wasco and St. John the Evangelist Catholic Church, sponsored their monthly Covid-19 vaccination clinic. Once again, Wasco residents who were vaccinated received a $50 Visa gift card. The UAC coalition includes the Dolores Huerta Foundation, South Kern Sol News and Lideres Campesinas, organizations which aim to empower underserved communities such as Wasco. "Today, 110 people received a covid-19 vaccine. Because of these monthly vaccination clinics, the number of vaccinated Wasco residents has increased," said Mayor Gilberto Reyna.

"However, according to statistics from the Kern County Public Health and the LHJ Vaccine Equity Performance websites, our city continues to have the lowest vaccination rate in the north Kern County communities at 47.24% and the highest reported infection rate at 45.99%."

Mayor Reyna stressed that the goal of these clinics is to increase the number of vaccinated individuals in Wasco.

"We are giving all residents a $50 gift card to incentivize them to vaccinate," said Mayor Reyna. Those that attended the clinic received their first, second or booster shot. "I needed my last shot. If you don't have your vaccine, you might get more sick compared to those that have been vaccinated," said Angela Herrera.

Generals celebrate Homecoming

JAMIE STEWART
The Shafter Press

Shafter High School had its annual Homecoming Week last week, with days filled with fun activities and big doses of Blue and Gold spirit. This year's theme was Disney, and each day was a different challenge for students. On Monday, the week started out with Marvel Monday, where the students were encouraged to dress up like their favorite superhero. Tuesday was Teen Beach Tuesday, with everyone wearing their best beach gear. Western Wednesday was a chance for the students to wear their favorite western wear, or dress up like an alien. Theme Park Thursday encouraged all of the students to dress up in attire that they would wear when going to Disneyland. Of course, Friday is always Blue and Gold Friday, with all of the students and staff dressed in their school colors. Homecoming Week culminated with a rally in the gymnasium, with a lot of cheers, music, and games. The celebration led up to Friday night, with the Generals going up against the Taft Wildcats. During halftime of the game, the Homecoming Queen and King were crowned. Serenity Angulo was named Homecoming Queen for 2022. Angulo is also a highly touted member of the Shafter High Lady Generals' softball team, where she is a standout pitcher for the squad. Also at halftime, each class

Lopez wants to keep serving the community

Last in a series profiling candidates for the Shafter City Council election in November. Other candidates' stories can be found on TheShafterPress.com.

With two seats up for grabs on the Shafter City Council this November, current member Cesar Lopez is looking to extend his tenure for another four years. Lopez said that he has enjoyed his time on the council and looks forward to another four years of serving the city. "I've been a public servant for our great City of Shafter since 2016, first as a board member for Shafter Parks and Recreation, and have had the pleasure to represent our city as a council member since 2018."

SHAFter

Cesar Lopez is looking for his second term on the council.

Lopez said that in the past four years he has learned so much. "I have made tough decisions and made my share of mistakes, in which I admit to and learned from. I've served our community all while continuing my career with the California Department of Corrections as a peace officer for the last 15 years. I also have been coaching girls competitive fast pitch softball, where I am the president and head coach of Shafter Brawlers softball, which consists of three teams and almost 40 players." Lopez commented that he believes that the youth of the community have always been a focal point of his because education and physical activities create success for the future of youth and the community as a whole. "My greatest accomplishments have been to be able to help expand our Learning Center and the acquisition of our Shafter Library, which is a great addition and partnership for consistent and higher educational learning." Lopez also said that he is overjoyed with the progress of the future North Shafter Community Park, Veterans Park, new basketball courts, soccer fields, lighting, walk path lighting, the Aquatics Center restoration and skate park improvement, that are already in the works. "But there is much more work to be done in order to give our youth safe, suitable places to exercise and conduct physical activities. All of this has been done without having to spend valuable general fund resources that can be used for core projects within our city and for the continuing of a high level of public safety." Lopez said that all of this work cannot be done by one person. "It has taken community input from our residents, amazing city staff and council members in order to achieve it. Let's continue to make Shafter an amazing, safe and prosperous city that we all come to love to live in," he said.

Local woman turns 100

VERONICA JACUINDE
Wasco Tribune

Carmen Beltran Nadal has lived a life full of blessings and beautiful memories. At age 100, she appreciates her family and friends who have showered love upon her. For her recent birthday, a party was hosted in her honor. Over 100 people attended from Los Angeles, Bakersfield, San Diego and as far as Baltimore. "I was happy seeing people I hadn't seen in a long time," Carmen said, "I didn't know

WASCO

I had so many grandbabies."

Carmen was born in September of 1922 on a farm in Shafter. She came from very humble beginnings when there were no electric lights and running gas or water in homes. She remembers riding into town in a horse-drawn buggy. She was married in 1949 to Maurice Nadal and enjoyed 36 years of marriage. Together they had four children, Frank Nadal, Maurice Nadal, Gloria Thomas and Rita Corona. Since then, her family has grown to be very close and extensive, with 10 grandchildren, 15 great-grandchildren and 6 great-great grandchildren. In the 1950s, she and her family moved to Wasco. Carmen believes she has lived an incredible and rich life. She worked most of it. At an early age, she labored in the fields as part of her migrant farm working family. She picked cotton, potatoes, onions, plums, garlic and grapes. Her family would travel to many places following the various crop seasons. These would be long journeys. It would take a week to get to Fresno. As a child, she wore clothes her mother made for her and her siblings out of flour sacks. When she turned 15, she got her first store-bought dress.

Wasco loses a beloved friend

VERONICA JACUINDE
Wasco Tribune

Stephen Lee Janzen came from a well-respected family in Wasco. A public servant, he was active in the City Council and served as mayor. After a life of many accomplishments, he passed earlier this month at the age of 80.

Janzen was born in Wasco in 1942, the oldest child of Darrell and Ruth Janzen, who raised him in the First Baptist Church. He was one of three siblings.

He attended local schools where he excelled in academics and sports.

"Stephen was a very strong track runner as a quarter-miler. He ran the 440 and set records there at Wasco High School. He also did really well at running while at Bakersfield College," said his brother, Keith Janzen.

After enjoying much success at WHS, Janzen went to Westmont College and Bakersfield College. Later, he attended and graduated from the University of Southern California, with degrees in political science and pharmacy.

Upon completion, he returned to Wasco to join Janzen Drug, the family business, where he went to work with his father.

"When our dad retired, he bought the business," said Keith.

Janzen was a humble man who believed deeply in the word of God. He spent his free time reading biblical scriptures and practicing the teachings of Christ.

"He was an avid reader and spent all morning reading the Bible and in the afternoon reading novels," said Keith.

Keith adds, "I will most miss his wit and ability to communicate with others. He could strike up a good conversation with anyone and hold it because he was so well read and versed in practically any subject you could think of."

On weekends you could find him watching college football.

He married Linda Campbell in 1969 and dedicated over 53 years of marriage to her.

She had lived in an apartment above the drugstore, which is how they met.

In the 1980s, he moved to Yucca Valley, then Lancaster, finally settling in Atascadero. In 2017, he returned to the Valley and resided in Bakersfield.

Linda was a Spanish teacher and counselor at Wasco High School. She later became an education administrator and would often get promotions.

"Stephen would accompany her to all the new cities she was hired in and work at various drugstores where they lived," said Keith. Janzen was a family man.

"He had a very strong relationship with his wife and would usually be with us on holidays," said Keith

He enjoyed traveling.

"They did some pretty big trips, including a safari in Africa and a tour of Europe," said Keith Keith added, "I will miss the times growing up and vacationing to Lake Tahoe together. We had fun there too."

He enjoyed a good meal.

Stephen Lee Janzen with Linda, his wife of 53 years.

"Stephen had a taste for food and liked to go out to nice restaurants," said Keith.

Sam Sikola, a member of the Wasco Rotary Club, said, "He was a Rotarian and a great guy, very friendly and knowledgeable about his business."

Janzen is survived by his wife, sister, brother, nephews and nieces, including nine great nieces and nephews.

He was laid to rest at Shafter Memorial Park.

"Stephen will be remembered for his intelligence and kind demeanor towards others," said Keith.

Sun Country Flowers under new ownership

Kirschenmann no longer grows her own flowers, deciding to suspend the operation for a time. "I may grow some of my own flowers in the future, but it just makes financial sense right now to obtain the flowers and plants from a wholesaler."

The shop will still carry a wide variety of flowers and plants, just the way the residents of Shafter have grown accustomed to over the years.

Reichenbach will remain in the shop for a few weeks to help Kirschenmann settle in and help her learn the operational side of the business. "We are doing good, but it has been crazy this week. We have had five funerals this week, with three of them in one day," Kirschenmann said.

She said that she found a few years ago that she loved growing flowers and would like to be involved in the flower business. "I then thought how great it would be to have my own shop"

In addition to flowers, the shop also carries a variety of candles, home décor items, plants and wall décor. "We will have the same great variety of flowers and plants that people have come to love with Carol," said

Amanda Kirschenmann and Carol Reichenbach at Sun Country Flowers.

Kirschenmann.

In the near future, she plans to hold a grand opening and a ribbon cutting.

"It has just been so crazy right now that I can't even think about that right now."

Assemblymember Rudy Salas gave Farmworker Institute of Education and Leadership Development CEO David Villarino a large replica check for $8 million, representing the guaranteed funding that he has helped secure for the group and their new training center.

"I am proud to bring this $8 million to the FIELD organization to support high-quality job training opportunities that will

The audience can expect to see tap, ballet, jazz and hip hop genres at the show at the Shafter High School auditorium..

Hernandez anticipates a large crowd.

"We usually have anywhere from 500 to 700 people attend to see these girls give it their all."

This year Planet Dance Studio will celebrate its 20th anniversary. "We have touched the lives and taught dance to thousands of students, instilling in them a passion for the art we cherish so much," said Hernandez.

The studio is run by Hernandez and his mother, Corine Matera. Hernandez has danced for 30 years.

"I absolutely love my choice of career and the opportunities it has given me. Our dancers keep me motivated to continue to bring my best to our students and community year after year," Hernandez said.

"We are super proud to get to the 20-year mark and go another 20 years."

The organization has four dance instructors. Together they have over 100 years of dance expertise.

"All of our instructors have a passion for teaching, and they bring that positive energy to the classroom to ensure that all of our students have fun while learning not only dance but leadership as well," Hernandez shared.

Time management, responsibility, commitment and dedication are all life skills that students take away from their dancing experience.

Hernandez said

what he likes most about the school is that the students are eager to learn.

"It is such a joy to work with them. They are so excited to be here."

He said teaching them a dance routine and then watching them execute it is very rewarding.

Currently, there are 70 students enrolled in the school. Any boy or girl ages 4 and up can participate. Fees are affordable to make dancing accessible to everyone.

Hernandez said about the Christmas-themed recital, "As the year comes to an end, we invite the community to join us for an evening of entertainment and celebration. It will be a night to remember."

Tickets for Sleigh Ride are $25 and can be purchased at the studio, 641 F St. Monday through Thursday from 4 to 9 p.m. For more information, call 661-240-5924.

dents nominated were Eli Crane and Leyla Raya.

teacher to establish goals to improve behavior, peer relationships, attendance or school work. All students who achieve their goals after a specific time are recognized as Terrific Kids.

Girls golf team shines

VERONICA JACUINDE
Wasco Tribune

The Wasco High School girl's varsity golf team has had an outstanding season thus far. They are ranked number one in the league and just came back from taking four wins at the South Sequoia League mini tournament.

Edward Moreno is the team's coach and has almost 28 years of coaching experience.

There are eight players on the team, including seniors Lilliana Valdez and Rose Lopez, juniors Liz Millar, Amber Newby and Raylene Hernandez, and sophomores Abby Salazar, Sesilia Rodriguez and Victoria Carreno.

The team is relatively new, with just 1 1/2 years under its belt.

"The commitment towards each other and the game of golf is amazing. To see them excel in such a brief time and see the things they are doing is remarkable," said Coach Moreno.

He added, "What makes them an anomaly is that even within this short period, it seems like they have been playing their whole lives. Golf is such a hard sport. The compliments I get from other coaches is that they know exactly what they are doing."

They work hand in hand together.

"Something that makes them unique is that they all have different personalities but are able to understand and encourage each other," said Coach Moreno.

The girls are exceptional student-athletes and work just as hard in school as they do on the course.

"On average, they have a 4.2 GPA and are all part of the Wonderful Academy program," said Coach Moreno.

The team puts in many hours of practice.

"We've worked very hard since January, over the summer and pre-season. We have been going at it nonstop," Rose Lopez said.

Coach Moreno said, "I set the pre-season up for them to play with the best against teams such Garces, Central Valley Christian and Liberty, some of the most competitive schools in the Valley."

Coach Moreno has big expectations for the team.

"I would like to have five girls make first in All League and one girl to be MVP of the SSL."

The girls are excited about the season.

"The season is going off just as I expected to be like last year when we were undefeated SSL champs and hope to have that title again this year," said Lilliana Valdez.

Lopez said, "We are having a great season because we have gone undefeated and broken our school record. I hope we can break many more with the rest of the matches we have left."

Of their coach, Valdez said, "He pushes us to do our best, and he has goals for us. He makes sure we work hard for them."

"He is willing to do anything for us. He cares for our team a lot."

The girls enjoy playing together.

"What I like most about playing golf is that I am able to play with my teammates. They are like my sisters and make golf more enjoyable," said Valdez.

Lopez said, "I think we have a great support system, and we all try to do our best for one another. We all get along well and are like a family."

Important life lessons are learned.

"The game of golf gives me more perspective when dealing with a difficult situation and allows me to handle my emotions better," said Lopez.

"It has taught me responsibility and how to manage my time," said Valdez.

The team counts on the financial support of key sponsors such as Todd Millar, Paul Farm AG Management, Creative Builders and Gebhardt Farm Management, to name a few.

"We can play a rich person's sport without being rich, and we couldn't do it without them."

Coach Moreno is very optimistic.

"These girls are special and are going to accomplish all of the goals they have set out this year to finish strong."

Local woman turns 100

"My dad made me a little party, played music and sang me happy birthday in Spanish," said Carmen.

She is one of eight children. All have passed away, except for her and her youngest brother. She only went to school until the third grade.

"My father thought I was too old to go to school at 12 years old, and he wanted me to help on the farm instead," said Carmen.

Throughout her long life, family has been her central focus.

"They have all been good to me," she added. "We all stick together."

With their love, she said there was never a moment where she was depressed.

"I had no time for that; I was always busy," said Carmen.

Carmen, no matter what, has been a determined woman. She raised all of her children in Wasco and provided them with as much as possible. They all graduated from Wasco High School and went on to have fruitful careers.

Her son, Frank, attributes their success to the hard work ethic she instilled in them and the values of respect and responsibility she taught them.

Her other son, Maurice, said, "She would keep a pretty good reign on us. We were a little on the wild side, and she always had a switch handy if we got out of line."

He added, "It was hard for us, and we had rough spots, but we learned that if there is a way and there is a will, it can be done."

Carmen grew up in the church and is a woman of faith, passing that on to her kids.

She spent most of her life as an agricultural worker and, in her later years, turned to cleaning houses and caring for children from her church.

"I worked hard all my life, but I enjoyed it and felt lucky," said Carmen. "They were long and poor years."

She learned to drive at 50 and has been relatively independent since then. She still manages to live on her own with the help of her children.

In her younger years, she had many hobbies, mainly knitting, crocheting, cooking and gardening.

"I used to make quilts, and I really liked doing that," she said.

Her granddaughter, Denise Nadal, said, "I still use a pancho that she crocheted for me."

At her 100 years, she is full of energy and much love.

Tigers rout Golden Valley, 45-14

JAMIE STEWART
Wasco Tribune

The Wasco High Tigers continued their winning ways on Friday night, beating the Golden Valley Bulldogs in a non-league contest 45-14. The Tigers upped their record with the win to 4-1 on the season.

WASCO

The Tigers started early in the game, rolling up rushing yardage on the Bulldog defense. In a season that has shown the Tigers have a potent passing game with quarterback David Manzo, it was not needed for the most part, with running back Izaiah Juarez rushing for more than 200 yards on the ground. Juarez also had two touchdowns, two interceptions, a forced fumble, a fumble recovery, and a score on defense. Manzo did show his efficient arm with a 40 yard touchdown pass to Eli Vasquez that widened the lead for the Tigers. Amazez Marquez also had a great game, with a touchdown and 124 yards rushing. The Tigers will return to SSL play on Friday night with a game against Kennedy High School from Delano.

Pay to vaccinate program continues

She came with her family. "I brought my mom, two sisters and my brother. It was simple, and it didn't hurt," said Herrera. The main priority for people getting their vaccine was safety. Cynthia Rodriguez said, "I came so I don't get sick. I brought my grandson. I think it's great that so many showed up." "My daughter received the vaccine. She is five years old. The danger still exists, and it's important to care for my family," said Alma Palmas. She said of the gift cards that were given as a reward, "It is a great way to get more people to get their vaccines." Felipe Hernandez, a recent immigrant, said he was grateful for the gift card. "I struggle, and every little bit of help

Mayor Gilberto Reyna getting his latest booster shot.

makes a big difference," said Hernandez. Luis Rodriguez came with his wife and four young children and received $300 worth of gift cards. He thanked the city. "It is going to serve us a lot, especially in these difficult times." Some have already been infected with the virus. "I wanted to get my booster shot because I've gotten the virus before and don't want to get it again," said Emily Villanueva. "My parents have their vaccines, and I didn't want to be the only one not fully vaccinated." Thirteen-year-old Sebastian Ruiz came for his booster shot. "I've had covid, and I didn't like it. I had to stay away from my family. I couldn't hug or get close to them. It made me feel sad," said Ruiz. People said the process was easy and impactful. "It was convenient. I appreciate the staff," said Amanda Harris. She said it was a matter of life or death. "It's crucial, so you don't die or get it as severe. I had it once, and I couldn't breathe. I wish I would of had my vaccine before I got sick. It was very scary," said Harris. "To help make Wasco a healthier community, I encourage everyone needing a vaccine to come to our next clinic on October 30th," said Mayor Reyna. The clinics occur every last Sunday of the month at the old Wasco courthouse at 810 8th Street.

Generals drop to 0-2 in SSL

JAMIE STEWART
The Shafter Press

The Shafter High Generals dropped another one point contest on Friday night, losing to the Taft Wildcats on Homecoming night 29-28. This is the second week in a row that the Generals have lost a game by one point, after a 35-34 loss to Chavez the previous week.

The Generals started off strong with a good first half, beginning with a touchdown

Jesus Figueroa makes a great catch for a key first down.

SHAFTER

run by Koa Rhodes, who ended the game with 198 yards rushing with three touchdowns.

Freshman quarterback Ezekiel Osborne threw for 105 yards on 7-14 passing.

Shafter took a 21-7 lead in the second quarter when Christopher Espinoza ran the ball in from 12 yards out. The Generals' defense did an efficient job in the first half keeping the Wildcats out of the endzone except for one score.

But, in a repeat of last week's game, the Generals' defense allowed the Wildcats back in the game, allowing three scores in the third quarter. Shafter didn't make one stop on a series in the third quarter, letting Taft score on three straight possessions. This was due to poor tackling, blown coverages, and not being able to control the line of scrimmage.

The Generals' defense stop the Wildcats on third down in the first half.

In the fourth quarter, Osborne connected on a touchdown pass to put the Generals up 28-22, with just a few minutes left in the game. But, once again, the Wildcats were successful in moving the ball on the Generals' defense, scoring with under two minutes left in the contest. With the extra point, the Wildcats took the lead 29-28. They were also helped with a large discrepancy in penalties, with the Generals penalized over 100 yards more than the Wildcats in the game.

The Generals were hurt on their last two drives of the game on offense with Osborne throwing an interception, and on their last drive of the game, they were hurt by a penalty, followed by a personal foul penalty on Coach Pierucci for arguing with the officials on the calls, which cost Shafter 15 yards.

With the loss, the Generals drop to 0-2 in the SSL. They will try to get their first league win of the season when they travel to McFarland on Friday night. The Cougars are the newcomers to the SSL, replacing Arvin, who moved to the SEYL.

HOW TO ADVERTISE EFFECTIVELY AND ECONOMICALLY

Our sales representatives are pleased to help you compose the most effective ad at a minimum cost.
Here are two key points to remember about your ads:

1. If it's an item you're selling, remember to include as much information
as possible. The more potential buyers know about the item you have for sale,
the more interest they have
in calling you.

2. Our reputation for Classified Advertising results is excellent. But not every potential buyer will read

your ad on the same day.
The majority of our private party advertisers take advantage of our discount rates. This simply means that you order your ad for
two consecutive issues,
but should you get the results you desire before the ad has expired, you may call and cancel the ad and be refunded for the days
the ad did not appear. Except for GR - no refunds or changes accepted.

GENERAL POLICY

1. Rates and deadlines subject to change without notice.
2. The Shafter Press and Wasco Tribune make every effort to avoid errors
in advertisements. Each ad is carefully read back for approval. However, mistakes sometimes slip through. We ask that you check your ad carefully.
If you should find an error, report it to the Classified Department right away by calling 661-292-5100 and asking for Classified. We regret that we cannot be responsible for more than one incorrect publication
if you do not call the error to our attention. The Shafter Press and Wasco
Tribune cannot be liable for an amount greater than the amount paid for such advertising.

important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or

POTENTIAL BIDDERS: If you are considering bidding on this property lien,
you should understand that there are
risks involved in bidding at a trustee
auction. You will be bidding on a lien,
not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does
not automatically entitle you to free
and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be
a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may
be responsible for paying off all liens
senior to the lien being auctioned off,
before you can receive clear title to
the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority,
and size of outstanding liens that
may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office
or a title insurance company, either
of which may charge you a fee for
this information. If you consult either
of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold
more than one mortgage or deed of
trust on the property. NOTICE TO
PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date
shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the
mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a
court, pursuant to Section 2924g of
the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee
sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and
date for the sale of this property, you
may call (844) 477-7869 or visit this
Internet Web site WWW.STOXPOST-
ING.COM, using the file number
assigned to this case 101916-CA.

Information about postponements
that are very short in duration or that
occur close in time to the scheduled
sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the Internet Web site. The best way
to verify postponement information
is to attend the scheduled sale. NO-TICE TO TENANT: Effective January 1,

trustee auction if you are an "eligible

POTENTIAL BIDDERS: If you are considering bidding on this property lien,
you should understand that there are
risks involved in bidding at a trustee
auction. You will be bidding on a lien,
not on the property itself. Placing the
highest bid at a trustee auction does
not automatically entitle you to free
and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that
the lien being auctioned off may be
a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may
be responsible for paying off all liens
senior to the lien being auctioned off,
before you can receive clear title to
the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority,
and size of outstanding liens that
may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office
or a title insurance company, either
of which may charge you a fee for
this information. If you consult either
of these resources, you should be
aware that the same lender may hold
more than one mortgage or deed of
trust on the property. NOTICE TO
PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date
shown on this notice of sale may be
postponed one or more times by the
mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a
court, pursuant to Section 2924g of
the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee
sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a
courtesy to those not present at the
sale. If you wish to learn whether your
sale date has been postponed, and, if
applicable, the rescheduled time and
date for the sale of this property, you
may call (844) 477-7869 or visit this
Internet Web site WWW.STOXPOST-
ING.COM, using the file number
assigned to this case 101916-CA.
Information about postponements
that are very short in duration or that
occur close in time to the scheduled
sale may not immediately be reflect-
ed in the telephone information or on
the Internet Web site. The best way
to verify postponement information
is to attend the scheduled sale. NO-TICE TO TENANT: Effective January 1,
2021, you may have a right to purchase this property after the trustee
auction pursuant to Section 2924m
